ON A MYSTERIOUS ERRAND SECRET SERVICE OFFICERS ARE EXPLORING THE CITY

Their Mission Supposed to Be to Ferret Out
Those Who Have Been Circulating
Bad Money.

Secret service men are in the city. They have been here for several days, arriving Sunday evening. Their mission without doubt is to unearth a crime, but what or whom they are after this time can not be learned. However, from their actions some unlawful deed of more than ordinary consequences has been committed within the city limits and the importunate sleuths propose to apprehend the guilty ones.

All of yesterday and last evening, two in one party and three in another, they visited saloons and many other spots, but in no instance did they give any information as to their quest. Quietly they moved, keeping an ever watchful eye and a closed mouth. From their success in the past in this city they have taught evil doers to tremble at the announcement that Uncle Sam's officers were in town.

This time it is judged that they are here in search of a gang of men who have circulating counterfeit coin. For over two weeks bogus half dollars have reached the tills of nearly every business place in the city. Protest have been made and close watch has been instituted but the circulators have as yet escaped detection. The spurious coin has evidently been handled by an organized gang. Every place in the city that was victimized noted the fact at about the same time.

The money is almost a perfect representation of the genuine and only a man accustomed to scrutinizing the coins closely would detect the counterfeit. In several instances other denomination of the bad money have been discovered, but they being mostly dimes it is likely that they are the remnants of the flood of ten cent pieces circulated several months ago.

A bartender in Diamond alley received a number of half dollars a few days ago and thinks that he remembers the man who succeeded in passing them, but is not confident enough to file charges.

HOMELESS, FRIENDLESS, PENNILESS

An Aged Man Who Came to Look Up Old Friends
Found Misfortune Instead.

Decrepit, miles away from home with no place to lay his head and with out friends or money, James R. Beagle, aged 68 years, appealed to the sympathy of a number of passersby who were attracted to him in Diamond alley last evening as he sat crouching on a box apparently in an endeavor to keep himself warm.

When questioned by one who approached him he proved to be one of the most obstinate characters that has ever landed in the city.

"It's none of your business," he said in reply to a question as to his name and home.

However, after a short time he related a little and told the following story:

"I am nearly 70 years old. When a boy I lived a few years in this city and was a steamboatman or raftsmen during the days that there was money in the work. I left East Liverpool with a number of the youngsters then living here, all of whom, I suppose, are now dead. After leaving the river I bought a farm near Marietta and was married. I never succeeded in accumulating much money, but in my later years and until a short time ago I had enough to keep me comfortably. My wife died two years ago

Having no children I of course led a lonesome life. One day a man who I supposed was my friend got me to go in security for $1,800. You know the rest.

"I was worth about $2,500 and the loss left me almost destitute. Since that time I have been living among distant relatives and only last week while in Allegheny visiting, I concluded to make this city a visit, as I had many a pleasant time here. My greatest fault was always my liking for whisky.

"I arrived here this morning and the first place that I landed in was in a saloon. I drank throughout the day and tonight the $25 which I had upon arriving is gone. Whether it was stolen or not I do not know. It got away from me, anyhow, and here I am. I know I could go to the city officers for help, but I will not. It would be a disgrace. It do not want the assistance of anyone."

With this the poor old fellow arose from his rude seat and walked away leaving his auditors in wonder and amazement.

The police failed to hear of the man's presence in the city and were unable to throw any light in regard to where he wandered.

They were married at Louisville, Stark county, June 15, 1899. No children were born to them. The wife charged extreme cruelty, habitual drunkenness and non-support. She alleged that her husband had frequently choked, beaten and threatened to kill her and that she should have refused to live with him long before the separation on October 8, 1902, had she not been intimidated by his threats of personal injury if she carried out her well known desires.

She further alleged that she had not only been compelled to earn her own living for a considerable length of time but had been compelled to contribute to the support of her dissolute husband.

COLT CASE APPEALED.
Lisbon, February 19.—(Special)—The case of Maggie Givens against Page Myler, a constable, has been appealed from Justice Moore's court, in St. Clair township. The suit was originally brought for the possession of a horse which had been seized by the constable, and the jury in the justice's court had found for the plaintiff.

APPOINTED CORONER.
Dr. D. J. Jones, of Lisbon, has been appointed coroner by the county commissioners. Major John L. Straughn, the coroner elect, having refused to qualify. Dr. Jones has no opposition as a candidate for the Republican nomination for that office.

A WARM SESSION IS PROBABLE

IMPORTANT MATTERS TO COME
BEFORE COUNCIL MEETING.

No Proposition from the C. & P.—Mr. Peach Wants to Know a Few Things.

The session of council to be held this evening promises to be a warm one. All important matters pending for months will be brought up and heated arguments cannot help ensuing. There are several questions which the body is about evenly divided upon that will be sprung and an attempt will be made to railroad them through. The members feel that this will be practically the last night that any business will be done and all are going to the meeting with the determination of getting through everything that they have fathomed or favored.

It is known, however, that no proposition of any kind will be presented from the C. & P. railroad. The committee appointed by council to confer with the officials of the board state that they are positive that nothing will be done by the latter until the new council is elected. Just how they will proceed with the new body is not known, but they undoubtedly have a card up their sleeve, one that could not work on the present membership.

Councilman Peach announces that he intends to have one question answered tonight which the people are very anxious about and know absolutely nothing. "I am going to demand an answer from the city solicitor on this question," said Mr. Peach. "Have the taxpayers of East Liverpool a right to dictate or advise council upon action in regard to the improvement of the streets, alleys and avenues of the city? If they have, why is it that they have not been given a chance for action or the proposed laying of a water pipe along Pennsylvania avenue?"

"I think it is an outrage that the water works trustees will sanction and allow the water works superintendent to go ahead and do the work according to his own views, when the people should be considered. When the committee of council agreed to let the line be laid it was with the understanding that not one foot of the paving along the avenue should be disturbed. I understand that the agreement is to be broken, and if it is I most assuredly will do all within my power to stop the work. An injunction will be asked for and I have no doubt about it being granted."

THE MAYOR CANNOT UNDERSTAND IT

Fails to See How a Man Always Has Money to Buy Drink But Never to Pay a Fine

Dan Gourley faced the mayor again this morning. As usual he was charged with drunkenness. Officer Morris nabbed him late yesterday afternoon while he was attempting to shove over a telephone pole at Sixth and Franklin streets. The mayor was at first undecided as to the severity of the sentence to be placed upon his frequent visitor, but finally imposed $5.60.

In arguing the question the mayor could not determine how it is that a man can always raise enough money to get drunk and can never raise the price of a fine. Dan will have to pay or remain a few days behind the bars.

LICENSED TO MARRY.

Lisbon, February 19.—(Special)—Peter A. Gallagher and Miss B. Josephine Collins, of Salineville, were granted a marriage license.

The following marriage licenses were granted today: Charles J. Allford and Miss Caldie T. Hale, of East Liverpool; H. H. Thompson and Viola Stevenson, of East Liverpool; James W. Gary and Miss Margaret Wright, of Wellsville.

Those who attended the parochial mission services at St. Stephen's church last evening anticipating a meeting of religious and spiritual enjoyment were certainly not disappointed. It was one that appealed to all for a decided effort during the weeks set aside for evangelistic work, and one that pointed out explicitly the great reward that awaits the true and zealous Christian.

The presence of Dr. F. E. J. Lloyd, D. O., of the Cleveland diocese, added much to the impressiveness of the service in many ways. After being installed as missioner by the rector, Rev. Edwin Weary, he took full charge and handled the meeting in the manner that brought forth so much praise and close relationship to the members of the church during his mission work in the city four years ago. He announced his gratification at seeing again with the friends that he had made and his willingness to greet all persons in the congregation who were desirous of help or assistance in the understanding of God's teachings.

On the subject, "Christian Economy," he preached eloquently and in part said:

"Animate and inanimate; visible and invisible. Those words are synonymous of two—God and man. They travel two indestructible paths. Man is born according to the purpose of God. He does not come as the result of passion. He is not chance. God is the maker of all things, our bodies minds and spirits. How then can we and up and defy Him? Can you bluff Him as the sun? Can you put out the moon? Can you make the north wind low south? No, of course you cannot alone can do those things. Being powerful and loving you with all the power that He possesses, how can you disregard Him? Did God design us to be on the earth on the level with the brutes that crawl over the surface? No, God designed us to be on the level with Him, to be His chosen companion.

"God did not create you to love yourself in the world, in the pleasures of the flesh, but that you be His own peculiar child, His darling. Men refuse to answer to God, their Maker. Seeing and understanding that God and man are separate facts—Creator and creature—man must be responsible to God for everything. God longs to take us unto His fold. He has provided for us a religion which, if we accept it, will take us to Him. Christian religion is an economy of salvation. It is designed first to bring the realization of facts and second the responsibility of appreciating and co-operating with God. The economy of Christian religion is not designed to save souls alone but also the mind and body. The three are as one with Jesus. He wishes to save at all times. Why don't you go to him now?

"Christ lives. All the great are dead but He. They are asleep, waiting in paradise for the eternal and last resting place. Why does Christ live? He lives as a savior. He is living to save the lives of those disposed to have them saved. A man leading a licentious life may decide to accept the love of Christ and be saved, but the visitor, but finally imposed $5.60.

POTTERS' ASSOCIATION COMMITTEE IN SESSION

A meeting of the executive committee of the United States Potters' Association is in progress here today in the rooms of the Potters' club on Fifth street. The eastern branch of the committee arrived in the city from Trenton this morning and are guests at the Thompson house. Besides the members of the committee there are a number of potters in the city from nearby towns.

The selling agreement by which the members of the association are controlled has been in force since the first of the year, and the effect it has had upon the trade will likely be one of the important matters discussed. The Trenton potters are represented by Messrs. Daniel Willets, J. E. Willets, J. E. Norris and William Burgess, all well known in the eastern pottery center.

BRUNER'S PETITION IS BEING HEARD

PROPERTY HOLDER SEEKS TO ENJOIN WELLSVILLE CITY.

Claims the Contract for the Paving of Maple Alley Was Not According to Law.

Lisbon, February 19.—(Special)—The case of Philip Bruner against Mayor W. L. Fogel and the remaining officials of Wellsville is being tried before the court today on a statement of facts. Attorney W. F. Lones represents the plaintiff and Judge P. M. Smith and Solicitor Boyd, the city.

The plaintiff as a taxpayer seeks to enjoin the city from the paving of Maple Alley in Wellsville. The grounds given are that the money was not in the treasury at the time the contract was let. The certificate of the clerk was on file, but between the time of filing it and the letting of the contract the money had been withdrawn from the treasury.

The answer is that while the money was withdrawn the city's share, about $190, has been returned to the treasury from the road fund. It is held by the defendants that the city's share one-fiftieth of the total cost, is all that the law requires should be in the treasury.

Rapid progress is being made on the reservoir to Mulberry street in the East End, which is to be laid with 12-inch pipe, is 6,800 feet. From the juncture of Pennsylvania avenue and Mulberry street an eight-inch line will be constructed south on the latter street to Railroad street, a distance of 800 feet. It will connect at Railroad street with the old line. A six-inch line will be built east on Pennsylvania avenue, from Mulberry street, to Boice street, a distance of 1,200 feet, and will connect with the old six-inch main. By these connections the East End district will have both the old and the new lines as a source of supply.

Men, Women and Children Boomed the Pottery Project Until They Were Successful.

Remarkably Long List of Judicial Appointments Made By Present Executive.

Columbus, February 10.—(Special)

In the matter of judicial appointments Governor Nash has all his predecessors beaten to a finish. He has recently appointed 16 common pleas judges, three probate judges and one police judge, 20 in all, and there are now two common pleas vacancies to be filled. One is caused by the resignation of Judge Festus Walters, of Circleville, and the other by the death of Judge W. W. Savage, of Wilmington.

The prospect of a pottery has enthused the community exceedingly and nearly all the prominent residents are working to make the project a success. Even the ladies have interested themselves in the enterprise and have raised $800 among themselves for the industry. In the beginning it was proposed that $60,000 should be raised, but it seemed a big undertaking and many predicted failure. But after 20

Conference of an Important Character in Progress at Columbus Today.

Columbus, February 10.—(Special)

The state conference board of Ohio hospitals, composed of the members of the state board of charities and superintendents, stewards and trustees of the state hospitals, will meet in an annual session in this city this afternoon.

The purpose of these gatherings is to discuss ways and means for maintaining the hospitals on an economic basis. Charts will be exhibited showing the relative amounts of staple goods used in the different institutions during the year. Ex-Governor Charles Foster is president of the board.

20TH YEAR. NO. 34.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1903.

TWO CENTS.

ON A MYSTERIOUS ERRAND SECRET SERVICE OFFICERS ARE EXPLORING THE CITY

Their Mission Supposed to Be to Ferret Out
Those Who Have Been Circulating
Bad Money.

Secret service men are in the city, they have been here for several days, arriving Sunday evening. Their mission without doubt is to unearth a crime, but what or whom they are after this time can not be learned. However, from their actions some unlawful deed of more than ordinary consequences has been committed within the city limits and the importuned sleuths propose to apprehend the guilty ones.

All of yesterday and last evening, two in one party and three in another, they visited saloons and many other spots, but in no instance did they give any information as to their quest. Quietly they moved, keeping an ever watchful eye and a closed mouth. From their success in the past in this city they have taught evil doers to tremble at the announcement that Uncle Sam's officers were in town.

This time it is judged that they are here in search of a gang of men who have been circulating counterfeit coin. For over two weeks bogus half dollars have reached the tills of nearly every business place in the city. Protest have been made and close watch has been instituted but the circulators have as yet escaped detection. The spurious coin has evidently been handled by an organized gang. Every place in the city that was victimized noted the fact at about the same time.

The money is almost a perfect representation of the genuine and only a man accustomed to scrutinizing the coins closely would detect the counterfeit. In several instances other denomination of the bad money have been discovered, but they being mostly dimes it is likely that they are the remnants of the flood of ten cent pieces circulated several months ago.

A bartender in Diamond alley received a number of half dollars a few days ago and thinks that he remembers the man who succeeded in passing them, but is not confident enough to file charges.

HOMELESS, FRIENDLESS, PENNILESS

An Aged Man Who Came to Look Up Old Friends
Found Misfortune Instead.

Dejected, miles away from home with no place to lay his head and with out friends or money, James R. Beagle, aged 68 years, appealed to the sympathy of a number of passersby who were attracted to him in Diamond alley last evening as he sat crouching on a box apparently in an endeavor to keep himself warm.

When questioned by one who approached him he proved to be one of the most obstinate characters that has ever landed in the city.

"It's none of your business," he said in reply to a question as to his name and home.

However, after a short time he related a little and told the following story:

"I am nearly 70 years old. When a boy I lived a few years in this city and was a steamboatman or raftsmen during the days that there was money in the work. I left East Liverpool with number of the youngsters then living here, all of whom, I suppose, are now dead. After leaving the river I sought a farm near Marietta and was married. I never succeeded in accumulating much money, but in my later years and until a short time ago, always had enough to keep me comfortably. My wife died two years ago

"I arrived here this morning and the first place I landed in was in a saloon. I drank throughout the day and tonight the $25 which I had upon arriving is gone. Whether it was stolen or not I do not know. It got away from me, anyhow, and here I am. I know I could go to the city officers for help, but I will not. It would be a disgrace. It do not want the world to know where I am."

The police failed to hear of the man's presence in the city and were unable to throw any light in regard to where he wandered.

They were married at Louisville, Stark county, June 15, 1899. No children were born to them. The wife charged extreme cruelty, habitual drunkenness and non-support. She alleged that her husband had frequently choked, beaten and threatened to kill her and that she should have refused to live with him long before the separation on October 8, 1902, had she not been intimidated by his threats of personal injury if she carried out her well known desires.

Se further alleged that she had not only been compelled to earn her own living for a considerable length of time but had been compelled to contribute to the support of her dissolute husband.

COLT CASE APPEALED.

Lisbon, February 10.—(Special)—The case of Maggie Givens against Page Myler, a constable, has been appealed from Justice Moore's court, in St. Clair township. The suit was originally brought for the possession of a horse which had been seized by the constable, and the jury in the justice's court had found for the plaintiff.

APPOINTED CORONER.

Dr. D. J. Jones, of Lisbon, has been appointed coroner by the county commissioners. Major John L. Straughn, the coroner elect, having refused to qualify. Dr. Jones has no opposition.

The executive committee went into session at 1:30 this afternoon and several of the members, who were approached by a News Review reporter,

A WARM SESSION IS PROBABLE

IMPORTANT MATTERS TO COME BEFORE COUNCIL MEETING.

No Proposition from the C. & P.—Mr. Peach Wants to Know a Few Things.

The session of council to be held this evening promises to be a warm one. All important matters pending for months will be brought up and heated arguments cannot help ensuing. There are several questions which the body is about evenly divided upon that will be sprung and an attempt will be made to railroad them through. The members feel that this will be practically the last night that any business will be done and all are going to the meeting with the determination of getting through everything that they have gathered or favored.

It is known, however, that no proposition of any kind will be presented from the C. & P. railroad. The committee appointed by council to confer with the officials of the board state that they are positive that nothing will be done by the latter until the new council is elected. Just how they will proceed with the new body is not known, but they undoubtedly have a card up their sleeve, one that could not work on the present membership.

Councilman Peach announces that he intends to have one question answered tonight which the people are very anxious about and know absolutely nothing. "I am going to demand an answer from the city solicitor on this question," said Mr. Peach. "Have the taxpayers of East Liverpool a right to dictate or advise council upon action in regard to the improvement of the streets, alleys and avenues of the city? If they have, why is it that they have not been given a chance for action on the proposed laying of a water pipe along Pennsylvania avenue?"

"I think it is an outrage that the water works trustees will sanction and allow the water works superintendent to go ahead and do the work according to his own views, when the people should be considered. When the committee of council agreed to let the line be laid it was with the understanding that not one foot of the paving along the avenue should be disturbed. I understand that the agreement is to be broken, and if it is I must assuredly do all within my power to stop the work. An injunction will be asked for and I have no doubt about it being granted."

Fails to See How a Man Always Has Money to Buy Drink But Never to Pay a Fine

Dan Gourley faced the mayor again this morning. As usual he was charged with drunkenness. Officer Morris nabbed him late yesterday afternoon while he was attempting to shove over a telephone pole at Sixth and Franklin streets. The mayor was at first undecided as to the severity of the sentence to be placed upon his frequent visitor, but finally imposed $5.00.

In arguing the question the mayor could not determine how it is that a man can always raise enough money to get drunk and can never raise the price of a fine. Dan will have to pay or remain a few days behind the bars.

LICENSED TO MARRY.

Lisbon, February 10.—(Special)—Peter A. Gallagher and Miss B. Josephine Collins, of Salineville, were granted a marriage license.

The following marriage licenses were granted today: Charles J. Allford and Miss Caldie T. Hale, of East Liverpool; H. H. Thompson and Viola Stevenson, of East Liverpool; James W. Garey and Miss Margaret Wright, of Wellsville.

DR. LLOYD HERE AS MISSIONER

Installed in His Work at St. Stephen's With Impressive Services.

MOST EXCELLENT SERMON

Dealing With the Economics And the Principles of Christianity—Earnest Words Urging Churchmen to Work For the Cause of Christ.

Those who attended the parochial mission services at St. Stephen's church last evening anticipating a meeting of religious and spiritual enjoyment were certainly not disappointed. It was one that appealed to all for a decided effort during the weeks set aside for evangelistic work, and one that pointed out explicitly the great reward that awaits the true and zealous Christian.

The presence of Dr. F. E. J. Lloyd, D. O., of the Cleveland diocese, added much to the impressiveness of the service in many ways. After being installed as missioner by the rector, Rev. Edwin Weary, he took full charge and handled the meeting in the manner that brought forth so much praise and close relationship to the members of the church during his mission work in the city four years ago. He announced his gratification at being again with the friends that he had made and his willingness to greet all persons in the congregation who were desirous of help or assistance in the understanding of God's teachings.

On the subject, "Christian Economy," he preached eloquently and in part said:

"I think it is an outrage that the water works trustees will sanction and allow the water works superintendent to go ahead and do the work according to his own views, when the people should be considered. When the committee of council agreed to let the line be laid it was with the understanding that not one foot of the paving along the avenue should be disturbed. I understand that the agreement is to be broken, and if it is I must assuredly do all within my power to stop the work. An injunction will be asked for and I have no doubt about it being granted."

"Animate and inanimate; visible and invisible. Those words are synonymous of two—God and man. They travel two indestructible paths. Man is born according to the purpose of God. He does not come as the result of passion. He is not chance. God is the maker of all things, our bodies minds and spirits. How then can we stand up and defy Him? Can you bluff him as the sun? Can you put out the moon? Can you make the north wind blow south? No, of course you cannot alone do those things. Being all powerful and loving you with all the power that He possesses, how can you disregard Him? Did God design us to be on the earth on the level with the brutes that crawl over the surface? No, God designed us to be on the level with Him, to be His chosen companion.

"God did not create you to love yourself in the world, in the pleasures of the flesh, but that you be His own peculiar child, His darling. Men refuse to answer to God, their Maker. Seeing and understanding that God and man are separate facts—Creator and creature—man must be responsible to God for everything. God longs to take us unto His fold. He has provided for a religion which, if we accept it, will take us to Him. Christian religion is an economy of salvation. It is designed first to bring the realization of facts and second the responsibility of appreciating and co-operating with God. The economy of Christian religion is not designed to save souls alone but also the mind and body. The three are as one with Jesus. He wishes to save at all times. Why don't you go to him now?

"Christ lives. All the great are dead but He. They are asleep, waiting in paradise for the eternal and last resting place. Why does Christ live? He lives as a savior. He is living to save the lives of those disposed to have them saved. A man leading a licentious life may decide to accept the love of Christ and be saved, but the

It is estimated that it will require another month to complete the work the entire cost of which will be in the neighborhood of $16,000. The pressure on the 12-inch main, it is estimated, will be about 120 pounds.

While it will be impossible to complete the improvement prior to the expiration of a number of the policies carried by East End manufacturers with the fire insurance companies, it is thought that the risks will be renewed in view of the effort that is being made to remedy the insufficient water supply. It is not believed that the companies will advance their premium rates.

The length of the line from the res-

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

CLAY MODELING.

The scope offered for clay modeling in architecture is immense. Every intricate adornment of a beautiful building in this city has been worked out in clay. It is only recently comparatively, that women have realized how advantageously this field could be worked by them. Now one finds the girls art student daubing herself recklessly with the sticky, gray, green clay, girls putting apart a corner at home for modeling pretty knicknacs, and others turning their ability to account in factories and potteries. An insight into the actual processes of the artist who models his figures from clay will enlighten those who are interested in the methods by which the clay is worked and managed from the time it is put in the mold form, whether it is the length human figure or a simple leaf of a plant. Modeling in clay is the sketch which the artist makes before the work is put in plaster, bronze, stone, marble or whatever material is chosen. Wax is used by jewelers, it being of suitable consistency for the work. A substance called plastalina is greatly used for the first sketches for the model, but it disagreeable to some sculptors on account of its greasy constituency. Its advantages are that it always stays in the same condition and does not have to be kneaded or wet as the clay does. If a softer consistency is desired, a little cottoleone mixed with it produces the right effect. It is used for the most part for small work, although a seven or even a nine foot figure has been put up in it. Clay, however, is more generally used. The term is applied in a vague way to those kinds of earth or soil which, when moist, have a sufficient degree of tenacity and plasticity to be satisfactorily molded. They owe their origin to the decomposition of other minerals.

INDIAN POTTERS.

According to Ernest Vilk, a noted historian, pottery was made in Trenton, N. J., at least 300 years before the first white man landed on New Jersey soil. In relating the results his researches into ancient American history, Mr. Volk says: "In a village site—explored in 1891 on the land of Andrew K. Rowan—which was about 400 feet long and about half as wide, a wagon load of broken pots was found, some of which have been restored and show the most beautiful decorative designs simply done on incised lines made in the pot before burning and arranged in an artistic manner which would bring credit even to the potter of today. Some of the pots, when restored to their original condition, were as large as a small washbowl. The manner in which these people made pottery is very interesting. A hole in the ground formed the mold and a fabric of coarse texture lined it. The clay was then pressed into the mold and the vessel shaped with the hands. In this crude way they manufactured very creditable specimens of the potter's art."

SHORTAGE OF WARE.

A shortage of ware compelled the decalcomania department to lay off yesterday and today. The shortage is the result of the broken lawn in the slip house, the effects of which have just been encountered in the decorating room. The Sevres is doing a large volume of decalcomania work and has the largest force employed in the history of the plant. A number of new tables have been built to accommodate the increased number of operatives.

RESISTED THE OFFICERS.

Hugh Moutz, Roy Welch, Free Allison, James Rayle, Ben Davis and Peter Milliron drove out to the gypsy camp, a mile from town on the Lisbon road, Sunday, to have their fortunes told. Several of the boys are to be millionaires, according to the mendicants, but they are not yet planning how they will spend the money.

WANTED: 50 MEN AND WOMEN

To Take Advantage of Special Offer
Made By B. C. Ansley.

B. C. Ansley, the enterprising druggist, is advertising today for fifty men and women to take advantage of the special half price offer he is making on Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and get a fifty cent package at half price, 25 cents.

So positive is he of the remarkable power of this specific to cure these diseases, as well as sick headaches and liver troubles, that he agrees to refund the money to any customer whom this medicine does not quickly relieve and cure.

With Dr. Howard's specific in hand, you can eat what you want and have no fear of ill consequences. It strengthens the stomach, gives perfect digestion, regulates the bowels, creates an appetite, and makes life worth the living.

This is an unusual opportunity to obtain 60 doses of the best medicine ever made for half its regular price, with the personal guarantee of a well known business man to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

If you cannot call at his store today, send him 25 cents by mail, and he will send you a package, promptly, charges paid.

B. C. Ansley has been able to secure only a limited supply of the specific, so great is the demand, and you should not delay taking advantage of the liberal offer he is making this week.

FLUE BURNED OUT.

A burned out flue at the Thompson necessitated closing down the plant and all departments were off yesterday excepting the decorating part. It was necessary to let the boiler cool in order to make repairs. It is thought the repairs can be completed today.

A NEW PRESSER.

Edward Ball, formerly of Sebring, has concluded to make East Liverpool his home and can be found in the pressing room at the Sevres, where he has taken a job making cover dishes. He is a pleasant young man and has already made a number of friends.

JIGGERS CHANGED.

A change has been made in the jigger shop at the Sevres, the two plate jiggers, operated by Tom Hill and Cyrus Scaratt, taking the place of two fruit jiggers, operated by Messrs. Garvey and Sanford. The change was made on account of the dry rooms.

SCHELL IMPROVING.

Carl Schell, of Burford's, who has been laid up for a month or more with inflammatory rheumatism, is reported much better today. The dance given for his benefit was a complete success and a neat sum was realized.

AMONG THE WORKMEN.

Archie Winters has taken a job as decorating kilman at the Sevres.

Miss Susan Mason, of the biscuit warehouse at the Sevres, has resigned her position.

Misses Ollie and Allie Beaver, of the biscuit warehouse at the Sevres, are working out their notice.

Thomas Fulmer, batterer for Jigerman Thomas Cooper, at the Sevres, has resigned and John Reese has succeeded him.

John Kagle, who has been out of the trade for some time, started to work this morning at the East Liverpool pool. He is a presser.

Thomas Cooper, the big jiggeman at the Sevres, who was confined to his home several days last week with sickness, returned to work yesterday.

Joseph Heckathorn, who has been employed as dishmaker at the West End, will leave this week for Lisbon, where he has taken a position on the dish bench at the Thomas plant.

Ben Wise, jiggeman at the Sevres, was compelled to loaf yesterday owing to the absence of his batterer. James Brighouse, who was called to Lisbon as a witness in a law suit.

A Prisoner in Her House.

Mrs. W. H. Lava, of 1001 Agnes avenue, Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be in my house constantly." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

The Problem of Living in Washington a Serious One for Congressmen.

IN THE OHIO DELEGATION

Fourteen Persons Content Themselves With Hotel Life—Ohio Colonies at Several Hostelries—One Representative Occupies Sherman House.

Washington, February 10.—Legislative questions may trouble them, the appeals of office seekers may annoy, and the uncertainty of political fortune may cause anxiety, but none of these is a source of more vexation to the average member of congress than the problem of living in Washington. Almost the first concern of nearly every member of the house and senate, and especially of the house, upon the approach of a session of congress is where and how he will live while attending to his legislative duties. It is a matter which affects practically every man, and particularly the married man who comes to the national capital to assist in framing the laws of the country.

The rich man cannot escape it any more than the poor man can, for it is just as difficult for the senator or the representative with wealth to determine a place of residence as it is for the one who has nothing more than his salary to depend upon. The problem is usually approached with hesitation and trepidation, and more conferences are held over it than take place in the committee rooms of the capitol when questions of great moment to the material welfare of the nation are considered. Not that there are inadequate accommodations in the way of hotels, boarding houses, etc., but the trouble is to find the one which meets all requirements, and in the case of the poor congressman, conforms to his means.

Washington is filled with hotels and apartment houses with cafe attachments. They stand on nearly every street corner and between corners. Some of them are good, many more are indifferent, and the rest are bad. On an average of five months a year—during the recess of congress—very little business is done by the hotels. Consequently the thrifty managers and proprietors must "make hay while the sun shines" and do their level best in raking in the shekels during the session. Rates are usually fixed upon the basis of a seven or eight-month year, to the resultant disgust of some of the lawmakers who have to pay the tolls.

Although the word Ohio goes a long way in Washington, still the members of the Buckeye delegation are not more fortunate in escaping the trials and tribulations of the living problem than the lawmakers from other states. But with the capacity and resourcefulness which characterizes the Ohio man for the most part they manage to fare quite well during their annual stay at the capital. Notwithstanding this, life has its discomforts and inconveniences for them. This is especially true during the short session of congress. Very few of the members care to bring their families with them for a three months' sojourn which is broken by a recess of more than two weeks during the holiday season. Therefore, as a rule, most of them who have families leave them at home during the second session of a congress.

Of the 21 members of the house from Ohio 14 are living at hotels this winter, one is occupying a home which he has leased, another is keeping house in a flat, and four are boarding. For the sake of companionship several Ohio colonies have been organized in hotels here. The most numerous of these is established at the Dewey, a comfortable hotel a quarter of a mile from the capitol. There General Grosvenor, of Athens; Mr. Taylor, of Lisbon; Mr. Tompkins, of Columbus, and Mr. Van Voorhis, of Zanesville, are staying. At the same hotel are quite a number of congressmen from other states, which makes it quite congenial for them all. At the Cochran, just around the corner on Fourteenth street, is another colony of Ohio men. It is made up of General Shattuck, of Cincinnati; Mr. Warnock, of Urbana, and Mr. Hildebrandt, of Wilmington. Across the street from the Cochran is the Hamilton, where Mr. Southard, of Toledo, and Mr. Kyle, of Troy, live.

The remainder of the 14 members who are contenting themselves with hotel life this winter are scattered around some of the best hotels in the city. At the Arlington, famous the country over and known also abroad, is Mr. Gordon, of St. Mary's. Mr. Gill, of Steubenville, also lived there last winter, but this year he is staying at the New Willard. Colonel Nevin, of Dayton, is at the Gordon, a fashionable hotel a few minutes' walk from the White House. Mr. Skiles, of Shelby, is a guest of the Normandie, where Speaker Henderson and many other members of the house live. Mr. Snook, of Paulding, stays at the Varnum, a small family hotel near the capitol.

Perhaps the only man in the Ohio delegation in the house who has practically all the comforts of a home in Washington is Mr. Beidler, of Cleveland. When he came to Washington a little over a year ago as the representative of the Twentieth district Mr. Beidler leased the large four-story brick house on K street which the late John Sherman occupied before he built the magnificent stone mansion adjoining which he occupied up to the time of his death. The house fronts on Franklin square, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, and is comfortable and commodious, and situated in a fashionable residence district. Mr. Beidler's family is with him, and he makes the best of his annual sojourn in Washington.

General Dick, of Akron, is living with his law partner, Major Fred Bryan, in the outskirts of the city. Mr. Burton, of Cleveland, occupies the second floor of a physician's residence a couple of doors from the Metropolitan club, of which he is a member. He took these apartments when he first came to Washington, more than a decade ago, and has grown so accustomed to them that it would be almost like leaving "the old homestead" to move to other quarters. Mr. Burton usually takes his meals at his club, which is standing compares with the Union club of Cleveland.

Dr. Norton, of Tiffin, has a cozy flat in the Cumberland, one of the many new apartment houses of the capital. The building fronts on Thomas circle and is within convenient distance of the executive departments. Mr. Bromwell, of Cincinnati; Mr. Cassingham, of Coshocton, and Mr. Morgan, of Oak Hill, are boarding.

The only member of the Ohio delegation who owns his home in Washington is Senator Foraker. The senior senator has a beautiful house on Sixteenth street at the corner of P street, one of the most desirable residence sections of the city. The house is four stories in height and is built of yellow pressed brick with stone trimmings. It is one of the handsomest residences in Washington and was constructed upon the senator's own plans. When Mr. Foraker was first elected to the senate he concluded, after considering all sides of the living problem, that it would be best to build a home of his own so that he and his family could live in comfort during his senatorial career. The Foraker home is the scene of many fine social functions, he and Mrs. Foraker doing a great deal of entertaining during every congressional session.

Senator Hanna and his family are very comfortably fixed at the Arlington hotel, although it is quite likely he will lease a house next winter. The senator and his household occupy ten or a dozen of the best rooms in the hotel on the first floor above the street. The Arlington is the home of some of the leading public men of the nation. Two cabinet officers—Secretary of War Root and Postmaster General Payne—live there, and so do Senators Aldrich, Spooner, Platt, of Connecticut; Platt, of New York; Foster, of Washington, and Alger, of Michigan. There is no more influential group of men in the senate than Hanna, Aldrich, Spooner and Platt, and these four men frequently hold important conferences in each other's rooms.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

CLAY MODELING.

The scope offered for clay modeling in architecture is immense. Every intricate attainment of a beautiful building in this city has been worked out in clay. It is only recently comparatively, that women have realized how advantageously this field could be worked by them. Now one finds the girl art student daubing herself recklessly with the sticky, gray, green clay, girls putting apart a corner at home for modeling pretty knicknacks, and others turning their ability to account in factories and potteries. An insight into the actual processes of the artist who models his figures from clay will enlighten those who are interested in the methods by which the clay is worked and managed from the time it is put in the mold form, whether it is the length human figure or a simple leaf of a plant. Modeling in clay is the sketch which the artist makes before the work is put in plaster, bronze, stone, marble or whatever material is chosen. Wax is used by jewelers, it being of suitable consistency for the work. A substance called plastalina is greatly used for the first sketches for the model, but it is disagreeable to some sculptors on account of its greasy constituency. Its advantages are that it always stays in the same condition and does not have to be kneaded or wet as the clay does. If a softer consistency is desired, a little cottoleone mixed with it produces the right effect. It is used for the most part for small work, although a seven or even a nine foot figure has been put up in it. Clay, however, is more generally used. The term is applied in a vague way to those kinds of earth or soil which, when moist, have a sufficient degree of tenacity and plasticity to be satisfactorily molded. They owe their origin to the decomposition of other minerals.

INDIAN POTTERS.

According to Ernest Vilk, a noted historian, pottery was made in Trenton, N. J., at least 300 years before the first white man landed on New Jersey soil. In relating the results his researches into ancient American history, Mr. Volk says: "In a village site explored in 1891 on the land of Andrew K. Rowan—which was about 400 feet long and about half as wide, a wagon load of broken pots was found, some of which have been restored and show the most beautiful decorative designs simply done on incised lines made in the pot before burning and arranged in an artistic manner which would bring credit even to the potter of today. Some of the pots, when restored to their original condition, were as large as a small washbasin. The manner in which these people made pottery is very interesting. A hole in the ground formed the mold and a fabric of coarse texture lined it. The clay was then pressed into the mold and the vessel shaped with the hands. In this crude way they manufactured very creditable specimens of the potter's art."

SHORTAGE OF WARE.

A shortage of ware compelled the decalcomania department to lay off yesterday and today. The shortage is the result of the broken lawn in the slip house, the effects of which have just been encountered in the decorating room. The Sevres is doing a large volume of decalcomania work and has the largest force employed in the history of the plant. A number of new tables have been built to accommodate the increased number of operatives.

RESISTED THE OFFICERS.

Hugh Moutz, Roy Welch, Fred Allison, James Rayle, Ben Davis and Peter Milliron drove out to the gypsy camp, a mile from town on the Lisbon road, Sunday, to have their fortunes told. Several of the boys are to be millionaires, according to the mendicants, but they are not yet planning how they will spend the money.

CONQUERED TYPHOID.

WANTED: 50 MEN AND WOMEN

To Take Advantage of Special Offer
Made By B. C. Ansley.

B. C. Ansley, the enterprising druggist, is advertising today for fifty men and women to take advantage of the special half price offer he is making on Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and get a fifty cent package at half price, 25 cents.

So positive is he of the remarkable power of this specific to cure these diseases, as well as sick headaches and liver troubles, that he agrees to refund the money to any customer whom this medicine does not quickly relieve and cure.

With Dr. Howard's specific you can eat what you want and have no fear of ill consequences. It strengthens the stomach, gives perfect digestion, regulates the bowels, creates an appetite, and makes life worth the living.

This is an unusual opportunity to obtain 60 doses of the best medicine ever made for half its regular price, with the personal guarantee of a well known business man to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

If you cannot call at his store today, send him 25 cents by mail, and he will send you a package promptly, charges paid.

B. C. Ansley has been able to secure only a limited supply of the specific, so great is the demand, and you should not delay taking advantage of the liberal offer he is making this week.

fever, is now convalescent and was out on the street for a short time Saturday. He is still in a weakened condition, however, and it will be some time yet before he can resume work.

FLUE BURNED OUT.

burned out flue at the Thompson necessitated closing down the plant and all departments were off yesterday excepting the decorating part. It was necessary to let the boiler cool in order to make repairs. It is thought the repairs can be completed today.

A NEW PRESSER.

Edward Ball, formerly of Sebring, has concluded to make East Liverpool his home and can be found in the pressing room at the Sevres, where he has taken a job making cover dishes. He is a pleasant young man and has already made a number of friends.

JIGGERS CHANGED.

A change has been made in the Jigger shops at the Sevres, the two plate Jiggers, operated by Tom Hill and Cyrus Scaratt, taking the place of two fruit jiggers, operated by Messrs. Garey and Sanford. The change was made on account of the dry rooms.

SCHELL IMPROVING.

Carl Schell, of Burford's, who has been laid up for a month or more with inflammatory rheumatism, is reported much better today. The dance given for his benefit was a complete success and a neat sum was realized.

AMONG THE WORKMEN.

Archie Winters has taken a job as decorating klinman at the Sevres.

Miss Susan Mason, of the biscuit warehouse at the Sevres, has resigned her position.

Misses Ollie and Allie Beaver, of the biscuit warehouse at the Sevres, are working out their notice.

Thomas Fulmer, batterout for Jigerman Thomas Cooper, at the Sevres, has resigned and John Reese has succeeded him.

John Kagle, who has been out of the trade for some time, started to work this morning at the East Liver pool. He is a presser.

Thomas Cooper, the big Jigerman at the Sevres, who was confined to his home several days last week with sickness, returned to work yesterday. Joseph Heckathorn, who has been employed as dishmaker at the West End, will leave this week for Lisbon, where he has taken a position on the dish bench at the Thomas plant.

Ben Wise, Jigerman at the Sevres, was compelled to loaf yesterday owing to the absence of his batterout, James Brighouse, who was called to Lisbon as a witness in a law suit.

A Prisoner in Her House.

Mrs. W. H. Lavha, of 1001 Agnes avenue, Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

CLAY MODELING.

The scope offered for clay modeling in architecture is immense. Every intricate adornment of a beautiful building in this city has been worked out in clay. It is only recently comparatively, that women have realized how advantageously this field could be worked by them. Now one finds the girl art student daubing herself recklessly with the sticky, gray, green clay, girls putting apart a corner at home for modeling pretty knicknacks, and others turning their ability to account in factories and potteries. An insight into the actual processes of the artist who models his figures from clay will enlighten those who are interested in the methods by which the clay is worked and managed from the time it is put in the mold form, whether it is the length human figure or a simple leaf of a plant. Modeling in clay is the sketch which the artist makes before the work is put in plaster, bronze, stone, marble or whatever material is chosen. Wax is used by jewelers, it being of suitable consistency for the work. A substance called plastalina is greatly used for the first sketches for the model, but it disagreeable to some sculptors on account of its greasy constituency. Its advantages are that it always stays in the same condition and does not have to be kneaded or wet as the clay does. If a softer consistency is desired, a little cotonene mixed with it produces the right effect. It is used for the most part for small work, although a seven or even a nine foot figure has been put up in it. Clay, however, is more generally used. The term is applied in a vague way to those kinds of earth or soil which, when moist, have a sufficient degree of tenacity and plasticity to be satisfactorily molded. They owe their origin to the decomposition of other minerals.

SHORAGE OF WARE.

A shortage of ware compelled the decalomania department to lay off yesterday and today. The shortage is the result of the broken lawn in the slab house, the effects of which have just been encountered in the decorating room. The Sevres is doing a large volume of decalomania work and has the largest force employed in the history of the plant. A number of new tables have been built to accommodate the increased number of operatives.

RESISTED THE OFFICERS.

Hugh Moutz, Roy Welch, Free Allison, James Rayle, Ben Davis and Peter Milliron drove out to the gypsy camp, a mile from town on the Lisbon road, Sunday, to have their fortunes told. Several of the boys are to be millionaires, according to the mendicants, but they are not yet planning how they will spend the money.

CONQUERED TYPHOID.

WANTED: 50 MEN AND WOMEN

To Take Advantage of Special Offer
Made By B. C. Ansley.

B. C. Ansley, the enterprising druggist, is advertising today for fifty men and women to take advantage of the special half price offer he is making on Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and get a fifty cent package at half price, 25 cents.

So positive is he of the remarkable power of this specific to cure these diseases, as well as sick headaches and liver troubles, that he agrees to refund the money to any customer whom this medicine does not quickly relieve and cure.

With Dr. Howard's specific in hand, you can eat what you want and have no fear of ill consequences. It strengthens the stomach, gives perfect digestion, regulates the bowels, creates an appetite, and makes life worth the living.

This is an unusual opportunity to obtain 60 doses of the best medicine ever made for half its regular price, with the personal guarantee of a well known business man to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

If you cannot call at his store today, send him 25 cents by mail, and he will send you a package, promptly, charged paid.

B. C. Ansley has been able to secure only a limited supply of the specific, so great is the demand, and you should not delay taking advantage of the liberal offer he is making this week.

fever, is now convalescent and was out on the street for a short time Saturday. He is still in weakened condition, however, and it will be some time yet before he can resume work.

FLUE BURNED OUT.

A burned out flue at the Thompson necessitated closing down the plant and all departments were off yesterday excepting the decolorating part. It was necessary to let the boiler cool in order to make repairs. It is thought the repairs can be completed today.

A NEW PRESSER.

Edward Ball, formerly of Sebring, has concluded to make East Liverpool his home and can be found in the pressing room at the Sevres, where he has taken a job making cover dishes. He is a pleasant young man and has already made a number of friends.

JIGGERS CHANGED.

A change has been made in the jigger shops at the Sevres, the two plate platters, operated by Tom Hill and Cyrus Scarlat, taking the place of two fruit jiggers, operated by Messrs. Garey and Sanford. The change was made on account of the dry rooms.

SCHELL IMPROVING.

Carl Schell, of Burford's, who has been laid up for a month or more with inflammatory rheumatism, is reported much better today. The dance given for his benefit was a complete success and a neat sum was realized.

AMONG THE WORKMEN.

Archie Winters has taken a job as decorating kiliman at the Sevres.

Miss Susan Mason, of the biscuit warehouse at the Sevres, has resigned her position.

Misses Ollie and Allie Beaver, of the biscuit warehouse at the Sevres, are working out their notice.

Thomas Fulmer, butterer at Jigerman Thomas Cooper, at the Sevres, has resigned and John Reese has succeeded him.

John Kagle, who has been out of the trade for some time, started to work this morning at the East Liver pool. He is a presser.

Thomas Cooper, the big jiggerman at the Sevres, who was confined to his home several days last week with sickness, returned to work yesterday.

Joseph Heckathorn, who has been employed as dishmaker at the West End, will leave this week for Lisbon, where he has taken a position on the dish bench at the Thomas plant.

Ben Wise, jiggerman at the Sevres, was compelled to loaf yesterday owing to the absence of his butterer, James Brighouse, who was called to Lisbon as a witness in a law suit.

A Prisoner in Her House.

Mrs. W. H. Lavha, of 1001 Agnes avenue, Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be in my house constantly." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

The Problem of Living in Washington a Serious One for Congressmen.

IN THE OHIO DELEGATION

Fourteen Persons Content Themselves With Hotel Life—Ohio Colonies at Several Hostleries—One Representative Occupies Sherman House.

Washington, February 10.—Legislative questions may trouble them, the appeals of office seekers may annoy, and the uncertainty of political fortune may cause anxiety, but none of these is a source of more vexation to the average member of congress than the problem of living in Washington. Almost the first concern of nearly every member of the house and senate, and especially of the house, upon the approach of session of congress is where and how he will live while attending to his legislative duties.

It is a matter which affects practically every man, and particularly the married man who comes to the national capital to assist in framing the laws of the country.

The rich man cannot escape it any more than the poor man can, for it is just as difficult for the senator or the representative with wealth to determine a place of residence as it is for the one who has nothing more than his salary to depend upon. The problem is usually approached with hesitation and trepidation, and more conferences are held over it than take place in the committee rooms of the capitol when questions of great moment to the material welfare of the nation are considered. Not that there are inadequate accommodations in the way of hotels, boarding houses, etc., but the trouble is to find the one which meets all requirements, and in the case of the poor congressman, conforms to his means.

Washington is filled with hotels and apartment houses with cafe attachments. They stand on nearly every street corner and between corners. Some of them are good, many are indifferent, and the rest are bad. On an average of five months a year during the recess of congress—very little business is done by the hotels. Consequently the thrifty managers and proprietors must "make hay while the sun shines" and do their level best in raking in the shekels during the session. Rates are usually fixed upon the basis of a seven or eight-month year, to the resultant disgust of some of the lawmakers who have to pay the tolls.

Although the word Ohio goes a long way in Washington, still the members of the Buckeye delegation are not more fortunate in escaping the trials and tribulations of the living problem than the lawmakers from other states. But with the capacity and resourcefulness which characterizes the Ohio man for the most part they manage to fare quite well during their annual stay at the capital. Notwithstanding this, life has its discomforts and inconveniences for them. This is especially true during the short session of congress. Very few of the members care to bring their families with them for a three months' sojourn which is broken by a recess of more than two weeks during the holiday season. Therefore, as a rule, most of them who have families leave them at home during the second session of a congress.

Senator Hanna and his family are very comfortably fixed at the Arlington hotel, although it is quite likely he will lease a house next winter. The senator and his household occupy ten or a dozen of the best rooms in the hotel on the first floor above the street. The Arlington is the home of some of the leading public men of the nation. Two cabinet officers—Secretary of War Root and Postmaster General Payne—live there, and so do Senators Aldrich, Spooner, Platt, of Connecticut; Platt, of New York; Foster, of Washington, and Alger, of Michigan. There is no more influential group of men in the senate than Hanna, Aldrich, Spooner and Platt, and these four men frequently hold important conferences in each other's rooms.

Of the 21 members of the house from Ohio 14 are living at hotels this winter, one is occupying a home which he has leased, another is keeping house in a flat, and four are boarding. For the sake of companionship several Ohio colonies have been organized in hotels here. The most numerous of these is established at the Dewey, a comfortable hostelry a quarter of a mile from the capitol. There General Grosvenor, of Athens; Mr. Taylor, of Lisbon; Mr. Tompkins, of Columbus, and Mr. Van Voorhis, of Zanesville, are staying. At the same hotel are quite a number of congressmen from other states, which makes it quite congenial for them all.

At the Cochran, just around the corner on Fourteenth street, is another colony of Ohio men. It is made up of General Shattuck, of Cincinnati; Mr. Warnock, of Urbana, and Mr. Hildrebrandt, of Wilmington. Across the street from the Cochran is the Hamilton, where Mr. Southard, of Toledo, and Mr. Kyle, of Troy, live.

The remainder of the 14 members who are contenting themselves with hotel life this winter are scattered around some of the best hotels in the city. At the Arlington, famous the country over and known also abroad, is Mr. Gordon, of St. Mary's. Mr. Gill, of Steubenville, also lived there last winter, but this year he is staying at the New Willard. Colonel Nevin, of Dayton, is at the Gordon, a fashionable hotel a few minutes' walk from the White House. Mr. Skiles, of Shelby, is a guest of the Normandie, where Speaker Henderson and many other members of the house live. Mr. Snook, of Paulding, stops at the Varnum, a small family hotel near the capitol.

Perhaps the only man in the Ohio delegation in the house who has practically all the comforts of a home in Washington is Mr. Beidler, of Cleveland. When he came to Washington a little over a year ago as the representative of the Twentieth district Mr. Beidler leased the large four-story brick house on K street which the late John Sherman occupied before he built the magnificent stone mansion adjoining which he occupied up to the time of his death. The house fronts on Franklin square, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, and is comfortable and commodious, and situated in a fashionable residence district. Mr. Beidler's family is with him, and he makes the best of his annual sojourn in Washington.

General Dick, of Akron, is living with his law partner, Major Fred Bryan, in the outskirts of the city. Mr. Burton, of Cleveland, occupies the second floor of a physician's residence a couple of doors from the Metropolitan club, of which he is a member. He took these apartments when he first came to Washington, more than a decade ago, and has grown so accustomed to them that it would be almost like leaving "the old homestead" to move to other quarters. Mr. Burton usually takes his meals at his club, which in standing compares with the Union club of Cleveland.

Dr. Norton, of Tiffin, has a cozy flat in the Cumberland, one of the many new apartment houses of the capital. The building fronts on Thomas circle, and is within convenient distance of the executive departments. Mr. Bromwell, of Cincinnati; Mr. Cassingham, of Coshocton; and Mr. Morgan, of Oak Hill, are boarding.

The only member of the Ohio delegation who owns his home in Washington is Senator Foraker. The senior senator has a beautiful house on Sixteenth street at the corner of P street, one of the most desirable residence sections of the city. The house is four stories in height and is built of yellow pressed brick with stone trimmings. It is one of the handsomest residences in Washington and was constructed upon the senator's own plans. When Mr. Foraker was first elected to the senate he concluded, after considering all sides of the living problem, that it would be best to build a home of his own so that he and his family could live in comfort during his senatorial career. The Foraker home is the scene of many fine social functions, he and Mrs. Foraker doing a great deal of entertaining during every congressional session.

Senator Hanna and his family are very comfortably fixed at the Arlington hotel, although it is quite likely he will lease a house next winter. The senator and his household occupy ten or a dozen of the best rooms in the hotel on the first floor above the street. The Arlington is the home of some of the leading public men of the nation. Two cabinet officers—Secretary of War Root and Postmaster General Payne—live there, and so do Senators Aldrich, Spooner, Platt, of Connecticut;

Platt, of New York; Foster, of Washington, and Alger, of Michigan. There is no more influential group of men in the senate than Hanna, Aldrich, Spooner and Platt, and these four men frequently hold important conferences in each other's rooms.

Gentlemen.—A couple of years ago, while experimenting through the South, I found that spending a part of my time in marshy neighborhoods filled with malaria, my system became weak and I lost weight. I took a dose of your syrup and quinine was prescribed. I took it for two weeks and as I kept getting worse, decided to change treatment. I spoke to a friend about my condition. He said that he had some of that he wished I would try. I used it for three days and felt better, and sent out for six bottles and used it with success. It is like magic in curing the poison out of my system, dissolved my blood, restored my appetite, and I am now in perfect health. I keep it for use and an occasional dose keeps me well.

Special Meeting at Second Presbyterian Church Able Addressed By Rev. A. R. Van Fossen.

The meeting at the Second Presbyterian church last night was one of the most interesting yet held. Monday nights the attendance is usually small, but last night the attendance was good and an excellent sermon was delivered by Rev. A. R. Van Fossen, of Allegheny. He chose for his text, "I have become all things to all men, that by all means I might save some."

Rev. Mr. Van Fossen will remain all week and have charge of the services. Quite a number of new members have been received into the church.

Mi-o-na Sold Under Druggist Will Reed's "No Cure No Pay" Plan.

A man or woman might as well starve outright as to take food into the stomach and not have it digested, yet in East Liverpool as well as in every other town and city, there are many people who are thin, pale and seem underfed, simply because the food they eat is not digested, the stomach is too weak to do its proper work, and the food fails to make good blood and firm flesh.

Mi-o-na, the wonderful flesh-forming food and scientific remedy for the cure of dyspepsia, taken after meals mingles with the food and enables it to assimilate and be readily digested so as to make rich blood and pleasing plumpness. No one can use it for a week or ten days without a noticeable gain in weight. It is the only remedy used in the treatment of stomach troubles where the money is refunded if it does not cure. Statistics show that out of every one hundred people who commence the use of Mi-o-na, 98 will find a gain in weight and a restoration of health and strength.

Any one who has dyspepsia, whose food does not digest well, who has to take thought as to what to eat, and when, or who is thin, weak, scrawny, and emancipated can place 50¢ on deposit with Will Reed and take home a box of Mi-o-na. If the remedy does not regular digestion, cure dyspepsia, and give a noticeable increase in good, firm flesh, he will return the money without any questions.

work is also being pushed in the upper end of the city and a large force of laborers are at work there. By spring it is hoped that the grading work will be in such an advanced stage that the active work of the construction of the road can be begun then.

"Some years ago I was afflicted with sun stroke which left me with a shattered nervous system and exceedingly poor health. I suffered terribly with pain in my head, the top of my head would feel hot. I could not sleep, and after striving for two years to wear the trouble off, I was compelled to give up my pastoral labor and retire to my farm where I spent nearly two years trying to recuperate. I was of no avail. Physicians' treatment and various remedies failed to relieve me. I was exceedingly nervous and irritable and sometimes would shake terribly. I could not bear any noise. At the least excitement the blood would rush to my face and head. Two years ago I was induced to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. After using one bottle I could see improvement in my condition so I continued taking it for nearly a year. I am happy to say I no longer have those pains in my head or nervous spells. My appetite is good and I am able to preach three times on Sunday without fatigue. I consider Dr. Miles' nervine the most wonderful medicine ever discovered!"—Rev. D. Alex. Holman, Pastor U. B. Special Meeting at Second Presbyterian Church Able Addressed By Rev. A. R. Van Fossen.

The meeting at the Second Presbyterian church last night was one of the most interesting yet held. Monday nights the attendance is usually small, but last night the attendance was good and an excellent sermon was delivered by Rev. A. R. Van Fossen of Allegheny. He chose for his text, "I have become all things to all men, that by all means I might save some."

Rev. Mr. Van Fossen will remain all week and have charge of the services. Quite a number of new members have been received into the church.

Case Compromised.

The suit brought yesterday by Ethel D. Powell against the Adams Express company for $25 in Justice W. L. Carman's court did not come up for trial. The case was compromised by the defendant paying $14.88 and the costs in the action.

Ben Hur Meeting.

Pan-American court, Tribe of Ben Hur, held its regular meeting last night at the P. H. C. hall. A large number of persons were initiated into the lodge and a very interesting meeting resulted.

Rushing Railroad Work.

The grading work on the C. & P. is rapidly being extended all along the line of the road in the city and particularly in the East End. The work has practically been completed from Kalston's crossing to Mulberry street, and today a large number of men are busily engaged at this work. The Mi-o-na Sold Under Druggist Will Reed's "No Cure No Pay" Plan.

A man or woman might as well starve outright as to take food into the stomach and not have it digested, yet in East Liverpool as well as in every other town and city, there are many people who are thin, pale and seem underfed, simply because the food they eat is not digested, the stomach is too weak to do its proper work, and the food fails to make good blood and firm flesh.

Mi-o-na, the wonderful flesh-forming food and scientific remedy for the cure of dyspepsia, taken after meals mingles with the food and enables it to assimilate and be readily digested so as to make rich blood and pleasing plumpness. No one can use it for a week or ten days without a noticeable gain in weight. It is the only remedy used in the treatment of stomach trouble where the money is refunded if it does not cure. Statistics show that out of every one hundred people who commence the use of Mi-o-na, 98 will find a gain in weight and a restoration of health and strength.

Any one who has dyspepsia, whose food does not digest well, who has to take thought as to what to eat, and when, or who is thin, weak, scrawny, and emancipated can place 50c on deposit with Will Reed and take home a box of Mi-o-na. If the remedy does not regulate digestion, cure dyspepsia, and give a noticeable increase in good, firm flesh, he will return the money without any questions.

work is also being pushed in the upper end of the city and a large force of laborers are at work there. By spring it is hoped that the grading work will be in such an advanced stage that the active work of the construction of the road can be begun then.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Miss Grace Taylor, of Erie street, is suffering with an attack of tonsilitis.

Charles Laughlin, a jiggerman at No. 2, is unable to be at work today on account of sickness.

Charles Oberlin, of High street, who has been ill with fever for several weeks was worse yesterday.

Frank Oberlin left yesterday for Youngstown, where he will remain for several weeks on business.

Miss Mary Ramsey, of High street, who has been ill for several days is much improved and is now able to be out.

A dance will be given in the Larkins & Ferguson hall Wednesday evening by a number of the young people of the East End.

The latter team defeated the crack Steubenville team in January of this year by a score of 50 to 15, and is considered one of the best in the two states.

The Y. M. C. A. boys, who, by the way, are now rated among the best, will be up against one of the stiffest propositions of the season and it will add a feather to their caps if they succeed in taking the visitors in to camp. They will use every effort to accomplish this and a battle royal can be counted on. The game will be called at 8:30.

Following is the line-up:

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1903.

It is not too early to remind the candidates for municipal office of what will be expected of them, in case they are successful. East Liverpool has a few urgent needs which the new administration ought to be pledged to work for. Among them are clean streets, improved sidewalks, prohibition of the unnecessary obstruction and littering of streets and sidewalks with rubbish, general renumbering of houses, the establishment of fire ladders within which the erection of frames and flimsy structures shall be forbidden, the ridding of the city of suspicious characters and the total annihilation of the hold-up industry. These are by no means all the reforms desirable and necessary, but the list may serve as suggestions which enterprising candidates are at liberty to adopt as part of their platform and to add to as they see fit.

The hardships of the rural free delivery mail carrier on the route leading out of Wellsville would be unnecessary had Columbiana county waked up years ago to the importance of good roads. It is by no means improbable that some of the rural routes lately started in this city will have to be discontinued, simply because the roads are so bad. This would be a humiliation as well as a great loss. But a community that is content to remain behind the age in the important matter of roads cannot expect to share benefits and advantages devised wholly for those who are progressive. Columbiana county has the means to build good highways and should promptly take steps to wipe out her present and long-standing disgrace.

In reply to a question from a Cincinnati paper asking whether he would accept another nomination for the presidency, Grover Cleveland replied: "I cannot possibly bring my mind to the belief that a condition or sentiment exists that makes any expression from me on the subject of the least import

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1903.

It is not too early to remind the candidates for municipal office of what will be expected of them, in case they are successful. East Liverpool has a few urgent needs which the new administration ought to be pledged to work for. Among them are clean streets, improved sidewalks, prohibition of the unnecessary obstruction and littering of streets and sidewalks with rubbish, careful renumbering of houses, the establishment of fire lines within which the erection of frame and flimsy structures shall be forbidden, the ridding of the city of suspicious characters and the total annihilation of the hold-up industry. These are by no means all the reforms desirable and necessary, but the list may serve as suggestions which enterprising candidates are at liberty to adopt as part of their platform and to add to as they see fit.

The hardships of the rural free delivery mail carrier on the route leading out of Wellsville would be unnecessary had Columbiana county waked up years ago to the importance of good roads. It is by no means improbable that some of the rural routes lately started in this city will have to be discontinued, simply because the roads are so bad. This would be a humiliation as well as a great loss. But a community that is content to remain behind the age in the important matter of roads cannot expect to share benefits and advantages devised wholly for those who are progressive. Columbiana county has the means to build good highways and should promptly take steps to wipe out her present and long-standing disgrace.

In reply to a question from a Cincinnati paper asking whether he would accept another nomination for the presidency, Grover Cleveland replied: "I cannot possibly bring my mind to the belief that a condition or sentiment exists that makes any expression from me on the subject of the least import-

OBITUARYWilliam B. Mahan.

Steubenville, February 10.—William B. Mahan died at his home, 506 Sixth avenue, yesterday, in the seventieth year of his age. He was a native of Hancock county, W. Va., a son of Thomas Mahan, a well known and prominent early settler, and was born at the old homestead March 21, 1833. He received a good country school education and turned his attention to farming and became one of the famous fruit growers of the Ohio valley. He moved to Brooke county in 1853 and became the owner of the Mahan homestead and part of the land at the lower ferry and lived there until he sold his part of the land with his brother last year to the Follansbee Tin Plate company and moved to this city. He was a man of sterling integrity and honor, a good citizen and a progressive man. He married Margaret Browning in 1858 and they lived happily, surrounded by their children until last April when the beloved wife passed away. The children are: Frank, of this city; Elizabeth, wife of W. F. Wells of East Liverpool; Emma, wife of William Crawford, of this city; Irene, wife of Dr. Cummins, of Wellsville, and Misses Lou and Grace at home. He also is survived by his venerable mother, who lives at the home of his sister, Mrs. Barbara Henry, of Wellsville, and is now in her ninety-third year. Besides these members of his family he leaves three brothers: R. W. Mahan, of Steubenville; T. J.

AN ALLEGED BICAMIST

Man Lately Married in Wellsville Is Reported to Have Three Wives.

It is reported here that a railroad man, who only a few weeks ago was married to a popular West End young lady, has no less than three wives living, from none of which he has been divorced. His first wife, it is said, resides in Cleveland, his second wife in West Virginia, a short distance down the river, and his third in the West End.

Before coming to this city, he is said to have lived with his second wife in Irondequoit. He was employed by the C & P road as brakeman. One child is said to have been born of the first union and one to the second. He is now among the missing. He was last seen Saturday on the railroad pay car, when it went out the main line, having secured that run for the day. It is said that Cleveland authorities are looking for him.

Council May Meet.

An adjourned meeting of the city council may be held this evening, at which the differences existing between the city and the East Liverpool Street Railway company will be adjusted relative to the payment of the electric light bill by the city and the payment of the street paving assessments by the street railway company. Manager Healy, who is at the head of both the light company and the street railway company, will probably be present if a meeting is held.

Water Works Trustees to Meet.

A special meeting of the board of water works trustees will be held this evening in their office in the city building at which time it is expected that Consulting Engineer Bowen will be present and make his report on the bids received and opened by the board last Friday noon. He will report the lowest and most favorable bid of the thirty or more which were received and will make a recommendation to the board of the bid which they should accept.

Hunting the Missing Pair.

Mrs. Harry Carothers, wife of the man who is alleged to have left last Saturday evening with the wife of August Slotfield, went to Pittsburgh yesterday in search of her husband and it was reported in the West End last evening that both had been found by her. It cannot be stated positively at present whether this report is true or not. Mr. Slotfield has applied to the Pittsburgh police to institute a vigorous search for his wife.

An Enjoyable Smoker.

A very enjoyable smoker was held last evening in Potters' hall by Local Union No. 310, Boiler Makers. A large crowd was present, including representatives of all of the local unions in the city. Several East Liverpool men were also present. The evening was very pleasantly spent and stories were enjoyed. The Boiler Makers' union in this city has become quite a strong one.

Costly to Talk Politics.

George Akers, of East Liverpool, endeavored to talk politics to Chief of Police Housner yesterday and was taken to the city lockup, charged with intoxication. He will have a chance to talk to the mayor some time today and the conversation is likely to cost him $4.60.

COUNCILMAN-AT-LARGE

Ex-Councilman Heddleston, Well Known Young Business Man, in the Race.

Russell C. Heddleston, one of the city's brightest young business men is a candidate for the position of councilman-at-large. He is progressive and enterprising, and if the citizens desire to place the affairs of the municipality in the keeping of a safe and absolutely reliable man, they can do no better than to place him upon the Republican ticket at the coming spring election.

Mr. Heddleston has had a considerable amount of experience as a member of the city council, having served in that capacity for an entire term. While occupying the berth he made an enviable record as an able and aggressive representative of his ward. This experience makes him competent in every particular to represent the citizens in an acceptable manner, and his well known fighting qualities when a question of right is involved are well known. Mr. Heddleston was late in announcing himself, and for that reason it is just possible he will not be able to see all of the voters personally, but their votes and influence will be solicited by his friends, who are making a good, strong fight for his nomination.

Prof. Babcock, the expert optician, can still be found with the Wade Jewelry Co., 164 Fifth street.

SOUTH SIDE

SWARING COMES HIGH

Lon Shaffer Had $18.65 to Pay For Using Bad Language in a Street Car.

Lon Shaffer was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant sworn out by George R. Ahrendts, in Justice Johnston's court. The arrest was made by Chief Allison. Shaffer was charged with using profane language in a street car. He secured Judge Butler to defend him and later sent for Attorney George E. Davidson, of East Liverpool. The latter got there while a jury was being drawn and sworn in and after examining the charge found that the smallest penalty that might be given was a fine of $25 and 30 days in jail. He immediately asked the state to modify its charge and it was made to read disorderly conduct.

Several witnesses were examined and the defendant, Shaffer, was found guilty by the justice and fined $10 and costs, amounting to $18.65. Several other arrests were expected at the same time, but it was finally decided simply to make an example of one of the party of five who were said to be implicated.

NEW OFFICERS

Of the Presbyterian Church to Be Installed in Chester Thursday Evening.

The installation of the new officers and elders of the Chester Presbyterian church will be held Thursday night at the U. P. church where the Presbyterians have been holding their meetings.

It is expected that a number of different preachers will occupy the pulpit for the congregation in the spring. They will not be in a hurry to call a pastor and will also try to make arrangements for the building of a new church in the spring.

Mill Will Resume.

It is thought that the tin mill will begin operations again tomorrow, after being shut down in the hot rolls department for a few days because of the breaking of one of the big drive wheels on the engine. The other departments of the mill have been working steadily as the break down did not affect them.

A Clerks' Local Talked Of

The clerks of Chester are still talking of organizing a local in order to compel all the stores to close early. So far there has been but two stores where they refused to close at 7 o'clock. The rest have agreed to close at 7 and are doing so. A united effort will be made to bring the other two stores in line.

A VETERAN POTTER

And Substantial Citizen is John Horwell, Candidate for President of Council.

John Horwell, who has been engaged at the potting trade in East Liverpool, is bound over to common pleas court in the sum of $200. Mrs. Barth was charged with maliciously tearing down a fence that surrounded an orchard belonging to William Anderson, which is located about one mile west of the city.

The testimony showed that the defendant had torn down the fence with a hatchet, pick and maddock. It is said that Mrs. Barth will attempt to prove that the fence was on property belonging to her husband and therefore she had a perfect right to do as she pleased with it.

Both sides were represented by an attorney and much interest was taken in the trial. It has been brewing for about two years and seems to be the result of a dispute over a line fence.

Dr. R. J. Marshall Has the Disease, But in a Mild Form—Every Precaution Taken.

A number of physicians who were called to see Dr. R. J. Marshall, at his home in the East End this afternoon, pronounced his malady to be smallpox. Dr. Marshall, one of the mayoralty candidates, has been ill and confined to his home since last Thursday. Friday and Saturday he was a very sick man, but since he has shown a marked improvement and his condition is not regarded as serious.

A consultation of physicians was held yesterday, but any announcement as to the nature of the disease was postponed until after the consultation this afternoon. The physicians state that the disease is in a very mild form and at the present time no serious results are feared. Every precaution has been taken to prevent the spread of the infection.

CHARLES H. BERG

The Popular Ex-Councilman a Candidate to Represent the Fourth Ward.

There are a number of candidates for councilman in the Fourth ward, but the candidacy of Charles H. Berg is attracting more attention than that of any other aspirant in the race. Mr. Berg is not new in the councilmanic business, and by reason of having served several terms in the polk a few years ago has had sufficient experience in the office to make him a valuable man for the people of his ward in particular and the citizens generally. So well were his efforts appreciated while a councilman that he was honored with the position of president during one year of his term. No move was made for the betterment and upbuilding of the city that he did not take a leading part, and it is for this reason that his friends have been so much concerned in his becoming a candidate at this time.

Mr. Berg is a good business man and a conservative citizen. He is always and ever awake to the best interests of East Liverpool, and if honored with a place upon the Republican ticket as a councilman he will fill the office to the entire satisfaction of his constituents.

AN ALLEGED BIGAMIST

Man Lately Married in Wellsville Is Reported to Have Three Wives.

It is reported here that a railroad man, who only a few weeks ago was married to a popular West End young lady, has no less than three wives living, from none of which he has been divorced. His first wife, it is said, resides in Cleveland, his second wife in West Virginia, a short distance down the river, and his third in the West End.

Before coming to this city, he is said to have lived with his second wife in Irondequoit. He was employed by the C. & P. road as brakeman. One child is said to have been born of the first union and one to the second. He is known among the missing. He was last seen Saturday on the railroad pay car, when it went out the main line, having secured that run for the day. It is said that Cleveland authorities are looking for him.

Council May Meet.

An adjourned meeting of the city council may be held this evening, at which the differences existing between the city and the East Liverpool Street Railway company will be adjusted relative to the payment of the electric light bill by the city and the payment of the street paving assessments by the street railway company. Manager Healy, who is at the head of both the light company and the street railway company, will probably be present if a meeting is held.

Water Works Trustees to Meet.

A special meeting of the board of water works trustees will be held this evening in their office in the city building at which time it is expected that Consulting Engineer Bowen will be present and make his report on the bids received and opened by the board last Friday noon. He will report the lowest and most favorable bid of the thirty or more which were received and will make a recommendation to the board of the bid which they should accept.

Hunting the Missing Pair.

Mrs. Harry Carothers, wife of the man who is alleged to have left last Saturday evening with the wife of August Slotfield, went to Pittsburgh yesterday in search of her husband and it was reported in the West End last evening that both had been found by her. It cannot be stated positively at present whether this report is true or not. Mr. Slotfield has applied to the Pittsburgh police to institute a vigorous search for his wife.

An Enjoyable Smoker.

A very enjoyable smoker was held last evening in Potters' hall by Local Union No. 310, Boiler Makers. A large crowd was present, including representatives of all of the local unions in the city. Several East Liverpool men were also present. The evening was very pleasantly spent and stories were enjoyed. The Boiler Makers' union in this city has become a strong one.

Costly to Talk Politics.

George Akers, of East Liverpool, endeavored to talk politics to Chief of Police Houser yesterday and was taken to the city lockup, charged with intoxication. He will have a chance to talk to the mayor some time today and the conversation is likely to cost him $4.00.

Ex-Councilman Heddleston, Well Known Young Business Man, in the Race.

Russell C. Heddleston, one of the city's brightest young business men is a candidate for the position of councilman-at-large. He is progressive and enterprising, and if the citizens desire to place the affairs of the municipality in the keeping of a safe and absolutely reliable man, they can do no better than to place him upon the Republican ticket at the coming spring election.

Mr. Heddleston has had a considerable amount of experience as a member of the city council, having served in that capacity for an entire term. While occupying the berth he made an enviable record as an able and aggressive representative of his ward. This experience makes him competent in every particular to represent the citizens in an acceptable manner, and his well known fighting qualities when a question of right is involved are well known. Mr. Heddleston was late in announcing himself, and for that reason it is just possible he will not be able to see all of the voters personally, but their votes and influence will be solicited by his friends, who are making a good, strong fight for his nomination.

A Hard Road to Travel.

Even in San Francisco the way of the ticket "scalper" is hard, one having been on Tuesday fined $300 and jailed for two days for ignoring a court injunction in August, prohibiting him from manipulating round-trip tickets, of which he had become possessed.

Lon Shaffer Had $18.65 to Pay For Using Bad Language in a Street Car.

Lon Shaffer was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant sworn out by George R. Ahrendts, in Justice Johnston's court. The arrest was made by Chief Allison. Shaffer was charged with using profane language in a street car. He secured Judge Butler to defend him and later sent for Attorney George E. Davidson, of East Liverpool. The latter got there while a jury was being drawn and sworn in and after examining the charge found that the smallest penalty that might be given was a fine of $25 and 30 days in jail. He immediately asked the state to modify its charge and it was made to read disorderly conduct.

Several witnesses were examined and the defendant, Shaffer, was found guilty by the justice and fined $10 and costs, amounting to $18.65. Several other arrests were expected at the same time, but it was finally decided simply to make an example of one of the party of five who were said to be implicated.

NEW OFFICERS

Of the Presbyterian Church to Be Installed in Chester Thursday Evening.

The installation of the new officers and elders of the Chester Presbyterian church will be held Thursday night at the U. P. church where the Presbyterians have been holding their meetings.

It is expected that a number of different preachers will occupy the pulpit for the congregation in the spring. They will not be in a hurry to call a pastor and will also try to make arrangements for the building of a new church in the spring.

Mill Will Resume.

It is thought that the tin mill will begin operations again tomorrow, after being shut down in the hot rolls department for a few days because of the breaking of one of the big drive wheels on the engine. The other departments of the mill have been working steadily as the break down did not affect them.

VERY WARM FOR BAER

Criticism of Coal Companies Causes Considerable Contention.

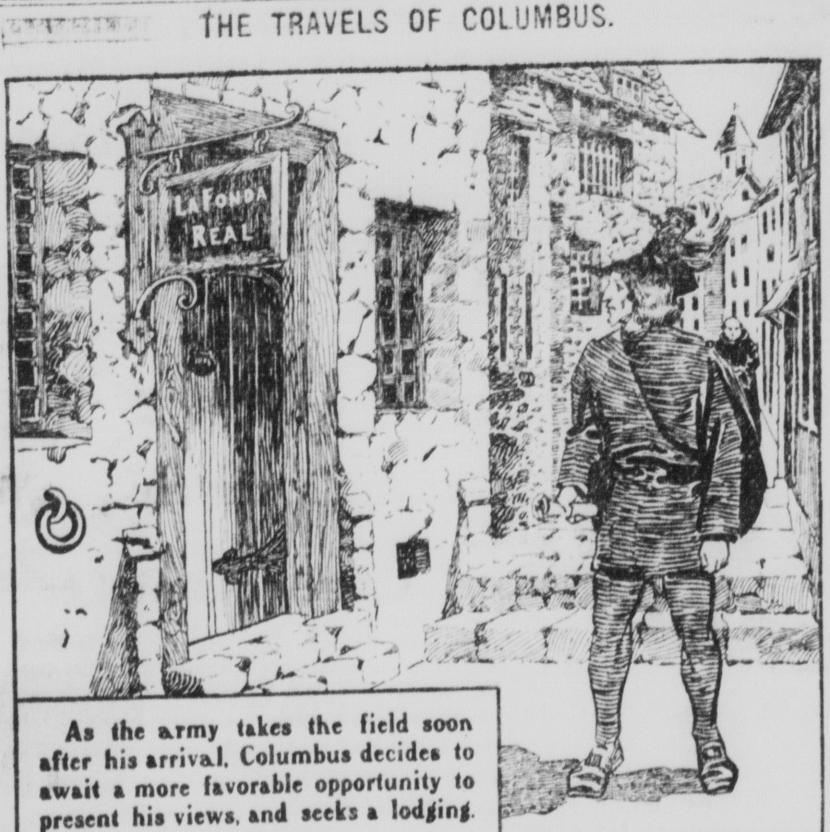

THE OPERATORS RESPONSIBLE.

Large Number of Foreigners in Anthracite Region Due to Coal Companies—The Union Upheld by Congressman Brumm.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—Attorneys for the miners began their arguments before the arbitration committee yesterday. Among those present was President Baer, of the Reading. Mr. Baer's presence resulted in a sensational scene. Former Congressman Charles M. Brumm devoted his argument principally in support of the demand for recognition of the union. He said that organization is the essence of government. Mr. Brumm charged that the coal companies were responsible for the presence of the large foreign population in the coal regions, and said:

"They can't bring the Hottentots here because it is too cold; they can't bring the Eskimos here because it is too warm, and they can't get the Chinaman because the law will not let him in."

When Mr. Brumm, in an oratorical flight, said that Mr. Baer denied at the eleventh hour that he had ever said 21 miners were committed in the coal regions—that he did not deny it until the statement was permitted to go over the country and receive

FIGHTING IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Two Americans Are Killed and Two Wounded—The Enemy Left Fifteen Dead.

Manila, Feb. 10.—A force of 100 constabulary, under Inspector Keith Lee, yesterday defeated a body of 200 insurgents near Mariluina, a small town seven miles from Manila City, after a severe engagement, in which Inspector Harris and one man of the constabulary were killed and two other men of the constabulary wounded. The enemy left 15 dead and 3 wounded. Inspector Harris' home was at Atlanta, Ga.

The body of insurgents formed the main force of the irreconcilable General San Miguel. The constabulary were divided into three detachments which were scouting in the Mariluina Valley. The detachment commanded by Inspector Harris came upon the enemy, who were in a strongly entrenched position. Inspector Harris fell at the first volley, being hit five times. The detachment of constabulary, although outnumbered, held its position until Inspector Keithley with the main force arrived when the enemy was put to rout.

Revolutionists at It Again.

Caracas, Feb. 10.—A force of 2,000 men with 50 horses and two guns, under the command of Minister of War General Ferrer, left Caracas yesterday morning in the direction of the seaport Higurote, 50 miles east of Caracas. The object of the expedition is to attack a body of 1,500 revolutionists under General Monagas, who are reported to be too feeble to attack the government, but strong enough to devastate the district around Rio Chico, and daily enter and pillage the town. Even ardent revolutionists seem to recognize that President Castro is master of the situation. The governmental troops captured the town of Guatire at noon, and are now marching on Rio Chico.

Suspected Woman Creates Scene.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Standing at the side of the coffin of her husband, for whose death the police believe she is responsible, Mrs. Mary Flynn created a scene in the presence of friends. The woman, who has been held pending the outcome of the coroner's inquest, was given permission to attend the funeral. Mrs. Flynn became hysterical as she gazed on the body, and throwing herself on the coffin, she kissed the face of her husband and sobbed, "Oh, my darling Jim, I did not mean to strike you. Forgive me." Mrs. Flynn is 40 years old. Her brother is James Barry, retired champion bantam weight pugilist.

THE TRAVELS OF COLUMBUS.

High Officials Shifted

THE recent rearrangement in the diplomatic service and the coming retirement of Judge Taft as civil governor in the Philippines have aroused more than usual public interest not only because of the importance of the offices involved, but also by reason of the high standing in the public service of the men affected by the changes that have taken place and are to come.

According to the existing plans, Judge William H. Taft will next month be nominated an associate Justice of the supreme court of the United States to as a private in a battery. His brother, who commanded the battery, was killed at Chickamauga, and young Wright commanded it until the close of the war.

After the war he studied law and for eight years was attorney general of Tennessee. During the yellow fever scourge in Memphis in 1878 he remained in that city. He nursed the sick, buried the dead, suppressed riots and was instrumental in saving the city from loot.

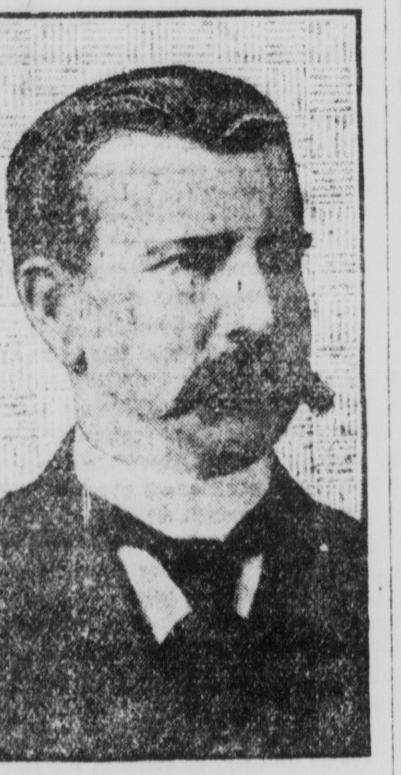

William Woodville Rockhill, who is to be made vice governor of the Philippines, is at present the director of the bureau of American republics. He has had a long experience in the diplomatic service and has a wide knowledge of political conditions in the far east.

While Mr. Rockhill will receive a much higher salary as vice governor of the Philippines than he does as director of the bureau of American republics, his acceptance of the first named place involves the relinquishment of many ambitious plans he has cherished looking to the extension of the present bureau into an institution far beyond its present importance and scope.

Mr. Rockhill has also served as United States minister to Greece, Roumania and Servia. He is forty-eight years old.

While the latest exchange of diplomatic posts was somewhat of a surprise, it really was the result and made possible by the general shakeup of foreign ministers last September. The present shift sends David Jayne Hill, first assistant secretary of state, as minister to Switzerland; Francis B. Loomis, now minister to Portugal, succeeds Dr. Hill in the state department, and Charles Page Bryan, minister to Switzerland, becomes minister to Portugal.

Dr. Hill has held the office of assistant secretary of state for five years, a longer period than that of any of his twenty-four predecessors, excepting Mr. Seward. The assignment to Switzerland is said to be particularly pleasing to him not only for personal reasons, his children being at school in that

GENERAL LUKE E. WRIGHT.

Judge Shiras, who is expected to retire. Since June, 1901, Judge Taft has been the civil head of affairs in our Asiatic archipelago and has performed his work in a manner that has been eminently satisfactory to the administration at Washington.

When Justice Gray retired, it is said that his place on the supreme bench was offered to Judge Taft, who felt he was still needed in the islands and was therefore moved to sacrifice the opportunity. The president did not forget this unselfishness and now feels that the work in the Philippines is in such shape that it may be taken over by General Luke E. Wright, the present chief justice.

Judge Taft, who is a native of Ohio, was educated for the law. While still in his twenties he was appointed a judge of the superior court of Cincinnati. Elected to the position for another term, he resigned in 1890 to become solicitor general of the United States under President Harrison. In 1892 President Harrison commissioned him United States circuit judge for the sixth circuit, which position he surrendered to take a place on the Philippine commission.

Personally Judge Taft is one of the most gracious and kind hearted of men, but several times during his career he has shown that he possesses fighting blood. At Yale he was noted for his skill as a boxer.

It is related of him that after his return from college to his home in Cincinnati an editor of a scurrilous paper made an attack on a member of his family. In company with his father he went to the office, and five minutes later the editor who had written the article was a candidate for the hospital.

Judge Taft was married in 1886 to Miss Helen Herron, a daughter of ex-United States District Attorney John Hill, now in his thirtieth year, and few men have attained such eminence in diplomacy and letters at his age. He was a college president at twenty-nine and built up Rochester university. He resigned this to take up the study of international law, in which he is regarded as an authority. He is an expert in treaty making.

In his family relations he is fortunate. His wife, who was Miss Juliet L. Packer of Pennsylvania, is of German descent and speaks French, Spanish and German with ease. Dr. Hill is a native of New Jersey.

Francis B. Loomis, present minister to Portugal, who succeeds Dr. Hill in the state department, is a trained newspaper man of much ability and besides has had a considerable diplomatic experience. Under President Harrison he was United States consul at Etienne, France. Returning from that post, he became editor in chief of the Cincinnati Tribune.

During the campaigns of 1884 and General Luke E. Wright, who is slated to succeed Judge Taft as civil governor of the Philippines, is one of the ablest lawyers of the south. He is a native of Tennessee and entered the Confederate army at the age of fifteen 1888 he had charge of the literary and press bureaus of the Republican national committee and accompanied Mr. Blaine on his memorable campaign from Maine to Wisconsin in 1884. In the last campaign he was stationed at Canton, the home of President McKinley, whose personal friendship he enjoyed and who appointed him minister to Venezuela.

Mr. Loomis was recalled from Venezuela because his course of action in the Bermudez asphalt controversy was displeasing to Castro. His course was upheld by the administration, and he was withdrawn only in the interest of harmony. Immediately after that he was sent to Portugal.

Charles Page Bryan of Illinois was minister to Brazil until last September, when he was named minister to Switzerland. Although confirmed by the senate, he has not been able to occupy that post and will now go to Lisbon as Mr. Loomis' successor. He is one of the few officers in the service who are acquainted with the Portuguese language.

Criticism of Coal Companies Causes Considerable Contention.

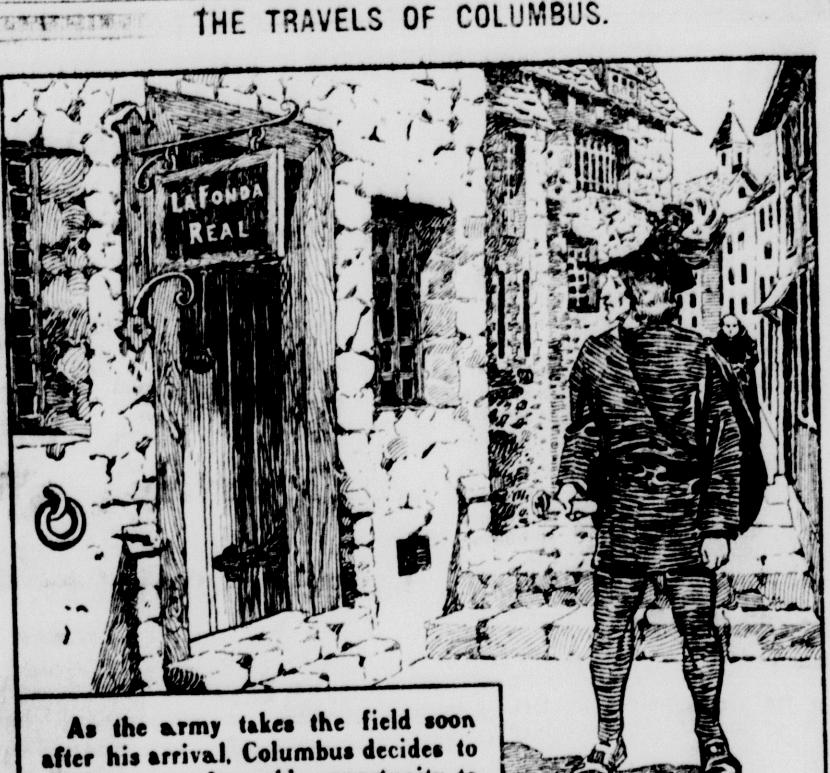

THE OPERATORS RESPONSIBLE.

Large Number of Foreigners in Anthracite Region Due to Coal Companies—The Union Upheld by Congressman Brumm.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—Attorneys for the miners began their arguments before the arbitration committee yesterday. Among those present was President Baer of the Reading. Mr. Baer's presence resulted in a sensational scene. Former Congressman Charles M. Brumm devoted his argument principally in support of the demand for recognition of the union. He said that organization is the essence of government. Mr. Brumm charged that the coal companies were responsible for the presence of the large foreign population in the coal regions, and said:

"They can't bring the Hottentots here because it is too cold; they can't bring the Eskimos here because it is too warm, and they can't get the Chinaman because the law will not let him in."

When Mr. Brumm, in an oratorical flight, said that Mr. Baer denied at the eleventh hour that he had ever said 21 murders were committed in the coal regions—that he did not deny it until the statement was permitted to go over the country and receive

Says Mrs. Nona Gaddie of Rio, Hart Co., Ky.: 'I took seven or eight bottles of "Pleasant Prescription" and one or two vials of your medicine. I had thought I would have been in grave trouble four months since I took the medicine. I was all run down, had loss of appetite, could not sleep at night, was nearly dead, had backache, bad legs, bad limbs and sick headache all the time. I have not had sick headache since I took your medicine.'"

Indianapolis, Feb. 10.—The national executive board of the United Mine Workers of America yesterday appointed W. H. Haskins, of Ohio, and T. D. Nichols, of the anthracite district of Pennsylvania, to go to Washington to work for the Hoar-Grosvenor labor bill. The board also endorsed a strike in the Tennessee and Liyol mines at Coal Creek, Tenn., and voted money to aid the strikers.

Those who attended the meeting were President John Mitchell, Vice President Thomas L. Lewis, Secretary W. B. Wilson and all the board members except William Morgan, district No. 6, and James B. Wood, district No. 23.

The board will adjourn today to meet later in the month. President Mitchell will leave tonight or tomorrow for Philadelphia.

NOT ABLE TO AGREE.

Provisions of the Several Protocols Demand More Than Bowen Thinks Just.

WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.

Protocols Will Remain Unsigned Until Relieved of Objectionable Ex-actions — The Misunderstandings
Soon to Be Cleared Up.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Although Mr. Bowen and the other negotiators are closely guarding the provisions of the several protocols it is understood that the demands which are known to exist in the German and Italian agreements, as they are at present drafted which Mr. Bowen cannot agree to concern an increased payment by Venezuela prior to the handing down of The Hague decision regarding the allies' contention for preferential consideration in the settlement of their claims. It is reported that Germany asks that she receive in addition to the $27,500 cash that Mr. Bowen has agreed to pay a certain percentage of the customs receipts until the remainder of the $34,000 demanded in the original ultimatum addressed by Germany to President Castro last autumn is paid.

Italy, it is believed, is insisting on a similar demand though the amount asked for in her ultimatum was over $500,000. Both Germany and Italy suggest that this money be paid in monthly instalments out of the customs duties, but even under this arrangement it would require eight months for the payment of the entire sum.

It is the principle, however, to which Mr. Bowen so strenuously objects and which he has informed the German and Italian envoys he cannot subscribe to. Until their protocols are relieved of these objectionable demands,
Mr. Bowen says that they must remain unsigned. He contends that Germany and Italy are insisting on preferential treatment, a question which they agree in their protocols shall go to The Hague.

It is the firm opinion of both the Italian ambassador and the German minister that the insertion in their protocols of these demands is the result of a serious misunderstanding on the part of their foreign offices of certain phases of the negotiations which were supposed to be settled. They are using every effort to have this misunderstanding cleared up and have informed Mr. Bowen they hope to submit their conventions to him in a few days.

Mr. Bowen has made it plain to the allies' representatives that he is willing to consider any reasonable requests they may advance, but that he will not yield to the extent of signing the present German and Italian protocols.

Published reports that Germany included in her protocol a demand for an apology from President Castro and his resignation is news to Mr. Bowen and of course would not be considered.

of Dollars.

New York, Feb. 10.—Between 10 and 15 bodies will be exhumed in Cavalry cemetery the latter part of this week as a result of discoveries made by Assistant District Attorney Krotol, who, for several weeks has been investigating a series of swindles by a gang of Italians, by whom eight different insurance companies have been cheated out of large sums.
It is now believed that the losses will aggregate close to $100,000.

Information has been received here to the effect that James Smithson, the founder of the Smithsonian institution, is about to be removed from his grave in Genoa, Italy, to make room for a quarry. A movement has been started here to have the United States government bring his body to this country and give him a permanent resting place in the grounds of the in-

CARMACK SCORES OUR SOLDIERS

Says Murders in Philippines by Them

Are Common—Mormonism a Factor in Statehood Bill Debates—District of Columbia Bill Defeated.

Washington, Feb. 10.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Carmack spoke on the Rawlings resolution calling upon the secretary of war for the proceedings in certain court-martial. He charged that murders in the Philippines by American soldiers had become so common that they would not bear lives in garrison and that this answer was entirely satisfactory "to our noble, generous and humane secretary of war." He also criticized the president for never having heard of the Captain
Brownell case, after having announced his intention of probing crimes in the Philippines.

Mr. Keen spoke on the statehood bill for a short time, when he yielded to various senators, who indulged in debate over the question of the influence of the Mormon church in politics. Mr. Elkins also spoke at length in defense of the claims of New Mexico to statehood.

Mr. Elkins read the Republican and Democratic platforms, praised the Democrats for trying to keep their pledges, while the Republicans, he said, had not been able to keep their promise to establish a statehood. Mr. Elkins declared that the national conventions interpret the wishes of political parties and not those of individual senators.
Thirty-three Democrats and 17 of 18 Republicans, he said, favored the omnibus bill, while 38 Republicans opposed it, and he wanted to show that the minority was obstructing the passage of the bill.

Mr. Elkins yielded to Mr. Hoar, who presented the conference report on the act fixing salaries of certain judges of the United States. The report was agreed to.

Mr. Clay of Georgia, declared an injustice was being done the people of Arizona and New Mexico on account of the statements made regarding those who were refused seats in the convention. The case of Delegate Boehm, from Union 31, was first taken up. The accusations against Boehm are that he conspired with the engineers and firemen's unions in New York and made contracts with brewers that were against the policies and interests of the union. Boehm was found guilty of these charges and was not only refused a seat in the convention, but was expelled from the brewery workers' organization.

Nature's Warning.

Nature has a way of warning you when danger approaches.

If you feel sluggish, "blue," run down, prostrated, out of sorts, your blood is in bad condition. You should at once do something to purify it.

Life Plant is all you need, because it purifies the blood. It not only does that, but it restores the vital element in the blood. Life Plant renews life.

It is composed of roots and herbs, gathered from nature's field, and cures in nature's way. Life Plant is guaranteed to cure Rheumatism and all blood diseases. Its merits are testified to by thousands.

Mrs. Susan Lewton of Malvern, Ohio, writes: "I had rheumatism for one year and a considerable portion of the time I was so bad I could scarcely walk. My ankle was so swollen a great deal of the time, I could scarcely get on my shoe. My limbs were numb and I suffered continually. I tried a great many remedies, but was unable to get relief until I tried Life Plant. I took four bottles and was entirely cured. It is a great remedy."

NOT ABLE TO AGREE.

Provisions of the Several Protocols Demand More Than Bowen Thinks Just.

WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.

Protocols Will Remain Unsigned Until Relieved of Objectionable Actions — The Misunderstandings Soon to Be Cleared Up.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Although Mr. Bowen and the other negotiators are closely guarding the provisions of the several protocols it is understood that the demands which are known to exist in the German and Italian agreements, as they are at present drafted which Mr. Bowen cannot agree to concern an increased payment by Venezuela prior to the handing down of The Hague decision regarding the allies' contention for preferential consideration in the settlement of their claims. It is reported that Germany asks that she receive in addition to the $27,500 cash that Mr. Bowen has agreed to pay a certain percentage of the customs receipts until the remainder of the $34,000 demanded in the original ultimatum addressed by Germany to President Castro last autumn is paid.

Italy, it is believed, is insisting on a similar demand though the amount asked for in her ultimatum was over $500,000. Both Germany and Italy suggest that this money be paid in monthly instalments out of the customs dues, but even under this arrangement it would require eight months for the payment of the entire sum.

It is the principle, however, to which Mr. Bowen so strenuously objects and which he has informed the German and Italian envoys he cannot subscribe to. Until their protocols are relieved of these objectionable demands, Mr. Bowen says that they must remain unsigned. He contends that Germany and Italy are insisting on preferential treatment, a question which they agree in their protocols shall go to The Hague.

It is the firm opinion of both the Italian ambassador and the German minister that the insertion in their protocols of these demands is the result of a serious misunderstanding on the part of their foreign offices of certain phases of the negotiations which were supposed to be settled. They are using every effort to have this misunderstanding cleared up and have informed Mr. Bowen they hope to submit their conventions to him in a few days.

Mr. Bowen has made it plain to the allies' representatives that he is willing to consider any reasonable requests they may advance, but that he will not yield to the extent of signing the present German and Italian protocols.

Published reports that Germany included in her protocol a demand for an apology from President Castro or his resignation is news to Mr. Bowen and of course would not be considered.

Union Veterans Union to Reorganize.

Springfield, O., Feb. 10.—Fifty delegates to the national convention of the Union Veterans Union are in the city, representing all parts of the United States. At the meeting an attempt will be made to reorganize the Union along the lines which were intended when it was established 20 years ago. This meeting is the result of a split in the national convention held in Washington last September, when R. G. Dryenforth was elected commander over General F. B. Hutchinson, of Rochester, N. Y. Hutchinson and his adherents withdrew from the convention. They claim that the delegates here represent two-thirds of the entire organization. CARMACK SCORES OUR SOLDIERS

Says Murders in Philippines by Them

Are Common—Mormonism a Factor in Statehood Bill Debates—District of Columbia Bill Defeated.

Washington, Feb. 10.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Carmack spoke on the Rawlins resolution calling upon the secretary of war for the proceedings in certain court-martial. He charged that murders in the Philippines by American soldiers had become so common that they would not bear lives.

He also criticized the president for never having heard of the Captain

Brownell case, after having announced

his intention of probing crimes in the Philippines.

Mr. Kean spoke on the statehood

bill for a short time, when he yielded

to various senators, who indulged in debate over the question of the influence of the Mormon church in politics.

Mr. Elkins also spoke at length in defense of the claims of New Mexico to statehood.

Mr. Elkins read the Republican and

Democratic platforms, praised the

Democrats for trying to keep their piedges, while the Republicans, he said, had not been able to keep faith or discharge their obligations with respect to statehood.

Mr. Elkins declared that the national conventions interpret the wishes of political parties and not those of individual senators.

Thirty-three Democrats and 17 or 18 Republicans, he said, favored the omnibus bill, while 38 Republicans opposed it, and he wanted to show that the minority was obstructing the passage of the bill.

Mr. Elkins yielded to Mr. Hoar, who presented the conference report on the act fixing salaries of certain judges of the United States.

The report was agreed to.

Mr. Clay, of Georgia, declared an injustice was being done the people of Arizona and New Mexico on account of the statements made regarding their Mormon population. At the present time, he said, there were but

1,300 Mormons in New Mexico and 6,500 in Arizona, while, according to the census of 1890, Idaho had 14,972 and Utah 118,201. He believed it was wrong to charge the people of New Mexico with being repudiationists, polygamists and ignorant. If given

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Contempt of Court Charged—Summons are being served on members of a party of 11 who took a sleigh ride into West Virginia last month. They paid toll for the team, but refused to pay for the members in the sleigh. They are required to appear before Judge Jackson, of the United States court, at Parkersburg, at its next session to answer to the charge of contempt of court.

Giehlein Moved—Restriction papers were issued by Squire J. N. Rose yesterday morning at the instance of W. L. Thompson, M. D., for the removal of August Giehlein from his property on Broadway. Giehlein immediately vacated and moved his personal effects to Rochester. He tried to ship certain belongings of his wife and had the pleasure of turning them over to her at the depot on replevin proceedings.

A Farewell Gift—William Hilleary, foreman of the Woodbine laundry for a long time, has tendered his resignation and will leave the city for Baltimore March 1. At the noon hour yesterday the employees at the laundry showed their appreciation of Mr. Hilleary's kindness to them by presenting him with a solid silver set of spoons, knives and forks. He replied to the gift with a neat speech.

COL. JOHN N. TAYLOR

One of East Liverpool's Leading Citizens Willing to Serve On Public Service Board.

Of the several candidates for a place on the board of public service Col. John N. Taylor is the one man who should receive the hearty support and assistance of the taxpayers. Col. Taylor has not made a canvass nor will he engage in none. He believes that the department of public service should be composed of men who have the welfare of the city at heart, and who would conduct the affairs of the department in a comprehensive and business-like way.

The salary attached to the position is not calculated to attract a man of Col. Taylor's station in the business world, and for this reason, if no other those interested in the well being of the city should be, and are, enthusiastic in his behalf. Public improvements should be in the hands of thoroughly practical business men, and knowing Mr. Taylor to be such, his friends are urging his nomination.

COUNCILMAN-AT-LARGE

Henry E. Bullock, of the Present Council, Strongly Endorsed As a Candidate.

One of the candidates for councilman-at-large at the coming primaries is Henry E. Bullock, who has been a member of the city council for the past two years. Mr. Bullock has at all times taken the part of the citizens in general and advocated the principle that the greatest good was to the greatest number of taxpayers.

His experience has been of a varied character and has enabled him to perform good work during his term of office. His friends are urging his return to the position on the grounds of excellent qualifications and good business judgment. He can be voted for in any precinct of any ward and collects the support of all voters in the nine precincts in the different wards of the city.

Married at Lisbon.

Lisbon, February 10.—(Special)—Frank Henry Stouffer, of Canton, and Miss A. Elaine Roach, of Salem, drove to Lisbon from the city yesterday afternoon and were married at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. J. A. Ullman. They returned immediately to Salem after the ceremony, preparatory to going to Canton, where they will commence housekeeping.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Smith-Talbot.

Kinsey Talbot, of Robinson street, and Miss Jeannette Smith, of Millwood, W. Va., were married at Steubenville on Monday, the announcement of which comes as a big surprise to the many friends of the groom in this city. Mt. Talbot is a well known young operative, employed as a finisher at the K. T. & K. pottery, and the bride is one of the prominent young ladies of the little West Virginia city. They will make their home on Robin son street.

Belmont Club Dance.

For the Belmont club dance, which will take place at Rock Springs on Thursday, February 19, about 300 invitations have been issued, among them a number to those living out of town. The dancing will begin at 8:30 and continue until 1 o'clock. Mc Graw's orchestra will furnish the music.

Will Entertain Friday.

Mrs. Edwin Aley, of Fifth street will entertain a large number of her friends on Friday evening. Those in attendance will consist largely of the members of the East Liverpool Social club.

Missionary Meeting.

The Young Ladies' Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church last evening held a regular business session.

AN EXPERIENCED MAN

George Olnhausen, Well Acquainted With City Affairs, Candidate for Public Service Board.

There is no better qualified man in the race for a place on the board of public service than George Olnhausen of the Fourth ward. In fact, his friends are of the opinion there is not one who could even equal him in point of knowledge of the money matters this department will be called upon to look after. He has had several years' experience in the council, during which time he performed a great deal of work for and in the interest of the city along the line of public improvements.

Aside from this he has been connected with a number of large concerns who at one time or another have had the biggest kind of contracts on hand. He is peculiarly fitted for the position and will make an excellent official. He is conscientious in everything he does and this assures the taxpayers that their interests will be protected in the true sense of the word.

When seen today Mr. Olnhausen said: "If elected I will do all in my power to have free competition on all contracts; to see that public money is properly invested; to abolish unnecessary expenses in all departments; to prevent the annual deficit, and at all times encourage strict business methods."

BIG WAGERS LAID ON MAYORALTY FIGHT

Several Bets of $100 Show How Warm the Contest Is Waxing.

That the mayoralty fight is waxing warm is evidenced by the number of bets that are being posted. All the candidates have friends who seem to be willing and in some instances anxious to chance their money on the result. One of the first big wagers posted was between Henry Meininger, of the East End, and James Morrow, the former pinning faith to Dr. R. J. Marshall and the latter to T. V. Thompson. The amount is $100, with no odds.

Another $100 bet was made Friday evening that Marshall would receive more votes at the primary than Thompson. This money was placed in the hands of C. G. Anderson, as stakeholder. No odds were given. Another bet was made last evening, $100 even on Nice against the field. The money is up and in the hands of Mr. Anderson. It is understood that the Nice end was taken by several of the candidates' friends.

Many smaller bets are being made every day and it is likely that before the day of the contest arrives several thousand dollars will be wagered on the result.

One of East Liverpool's Leading Citizens Willing to Serve On Public Service Board.

Of the several candidates for a place on the board of public service Col. John N. Taylor is the one man who should receive the hearty support and assistance of the taxpayers. Col. Taylor has not made a canvass nor will he engage in none. He believes that the department of public service should be composed of men who have the welfare of the city at heart, and who would conduct the affairs of the department in a comprehensive and business-like way.

The salary attached to the position is not calculated to attract a man of Col. Taylor's station in the business world, and for this reason, if no other those interested in the well being of the city should be, and are, enthusiastic in his behalf. Public improvements should be in the hands of thoroughly practical business men, and knowing Mr. Taylor to be such, his friends are urging his nomination.

COUNCILMAN-AT-LARGE

Henry E. Bullock, of the Present Council, Strongly Endorsed As a Candidate.

One of the candidates for councilman-at-large at the coming primaries is Henry E. Bullock, who has been a member of the city council for the past two years. Mr. Bullock has at all times taken the part of the citizens in general and advocated the principle that the greatest good was to the greatest number of taxpayers.

His experience has been of a varied character and has enabled him to perform good work during his term of office. His friends are urging his return to the position on the grounds of excellent qualifications and good business judgment. He can be voted for in any precinct of any ward and collects the support of all voters in the nine precincts in the different wards of the city.

Married at Lisbon.

Lisbon, February 10.—(Special)—Frank Henry Stoner, of Canton, and Miss A. Elaine Roach, of Salem, drove to Lisbon from the city yesterday afternoon and were married at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. J. SOCIAL EVENTS

Smith-Talbot.

Kinsey Talbot, of Robinson street and Miss Jeannette Smith, of Millwood, W. Va., were married at Steubenville on Monday, the announcement of which comes as a big surprise to the many friends of the groom in this city. Mt. Talbot is a well known young operative, employed as a finisher at the K. T. & K. pottery, and the bride is one of the prominent young ladies of the little West Virginia city. They will make their home on Robin son street.

Belmont Club Dance.

For the Belmont club dance, which will take place at Rock Springs on Thursday, February 19, about 300 invitations have been issued, among them a number to those living out of town. The dancing will begin at 8:30 and continue until 1 o'clock. McGraw's orchestra will furnish the music.

Will Entertain Friday.

Mrs. Edwin Aley, of Fifth street will entertain a large number of her friends on Friday evening. Those in attendance will consist largely of the members of the East Liverpool Social club.

Missionary Meeting.

The Young Ladies' Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church last evening held a regular business session.

AN EXPERIENCED MAN

George Olnhausen, Well Acquainted With City Affairs, Candidate for Public Service Board.

There is no better qualified man in the race for place on the board of public service than George Olnhausen of the Fourth ward. In fact, his friends are of the opinion there is not one who could even equal him in point of knowledge of the money matters this department will be called upon to look after. He has had several years' experience in the council, during which time he performed a great deal of work for and in the interest of the city along the line of public improvements.

Aside from this he has been connected with a number of large concerns who at one time or another have had the biggest kind of contracts on hand. He is peculiarly fitted for the position and will make an excellent official. He is conscientious in everything he does and this assures the taxpayers that their interests will be protected in the true sense of the word.

When seen today Mr. Olnhausen said: "If elected I will do all in my power to have free competition on all contracts; to see that public money is properly invested; to abolish unnecessary expenses in all departments; to prevent the annual deficit, and at all times encourage strict business methods."

BIG WAGERS LAID ON MAYORALTY FIGHT

Several Bets of $100 Show How Warm the Contest Is Waxing.

That the mayoralty fight is waxing warm is evidenced by the number of bets that are being posted. All the candidates have friends who seem to be willing and in some instances anxious to chance their money on the result. One of the first big wagers posted was between Henry Meininger, of the East End, and James Morrow, the former pinning faith to Dr. R. J. Marshall and the latter to T. V. Thompson. The amount is $100, with no odds.

Another $100 bet was made Friday evening that Marshall would receive more votes at the primary than Thompson. This money was placed in the hands of C. G. Anderson, as stakeholder. No odds were given. Another bet was made last evening, $100 even on Nice against the field. The money is up and in the hands of Mr. Anderson. It is understood that the Nice end was taken by several of the candidates' friends.

Many smaller bets are being made every day and it is likely that before the day of the contest arrives several thousand dollars will be wagered on the result.

20TH YEAR. NO. 34.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1903.

TWO CENTS.

ON A MYSTERIOUS ERRAND SECRET SERVICE OFFICERS ARE EXPLORING THE CITY

Their Mission Supposed to Be to Ferret Out
Those Who Have Been Circulating
Bad Money.

Secret service men are in the city, over two weeks bogus half dollars have reached the tills of nearly every business place in the city. Protest have been made and close watch has been instituted but the circulators have as yet escaped detection. The spurious coin has evidently been handled by an organized gang. Every place in the city that was victimized noted the fact at about the same time.

The money is almost a perfect representation of the genuine and only man accustomed to scrutinizing the coins closely would detect the counterfeit. In several instances other denomination of the bad money have been discovered, but they being mostly dimes it is likely that they are the remnants of the flood of ten cent pieces circulated several months ago.

A bartender in Diamond alley received a number of half dollars a few days ago and thinks that he remembers the man who succeeded in passing them, but is not confident enough to file charges.

This time it is judged that they are here in search of a gang of men who have circulating counterfeit coin. For

HOMELESS, FRIENDLESS, PENNILESS

An Aged Man Who Came to Look Up Old Friends
Found Misfortune Instead.

Decrepit, miles away from home, with no place to lay his head and with out friends or money, James R. Beagle, aged 68 years, appealed to the sympathy of a number of passersby who were attracted to him in Diamond alley last evening as he sat crouching on a box apparently in an endeavor to keep himself warm.

When questioned by one who approached him he proved to be one of the most obstinate characters that has ever landed in the city.

"It's none of your business," he said in reply to a question as to his name and home.

However, after a short time he related a little and told the following story:

"I am nearly 70 years old. When a boy I lived a few years in this city and was a steamboatman or raftsmen during the days that there was money in the work. I left East Liverpool with a number of the youngsters then living here, all of whom, I suppose, are now dead. After leaving the river I bought a farm near Marietta and was married. I never succeeded in accumulating much money, but in my later years and until a short time ago, I always had enough to keep me comfortably. My wife died two years ago

Having no children I of course led a lonesome life. One day a man who I supposed was my friend got me to go to security for $1,800. You know the rest.

"I was worth about $2,500 and the loss left me almost destitute. Since that time I have been living among distant relatives and only last week while in Allegheny visiting, I concluded to make this city a visit, as I had many a pleasant time here. My greatest fault was always my liking for whisky.

"I arrived here this morning and the first place that I landed in was in a saloon. I drank throughout the day and tonight the $25 which I had upon arriving is gone. Whether it was stolen or not I do not know. It got away from me, anyhow, and here I am. I know I could go to the city officers for help, but I will not. It would be a disgrace. It do not want the assistance of anyone."

With this the poor old fellow arose from his rude seat and walked away, leaving his auditors in wonder and amazement.

The police failed to hear of the man's presence in the city and were unable to throw any light in regard to where he wandered.

They were married at Louisville, Stark county, June 15, 1889. No children were born to them. The wife charged extreme cruelty, habitual drunkenness and non-support. She alleged that her husband had frequently choked, beaten and threatened to kill her and that she should have refused to live with him long before the separation on October 8, 1902, had she not been intimidated by his threats of personal injury if she carried out her well known desires.

So further alleged that she had not only been compelled to earn her own living for a considerable length of time but had been compelled to contribute to the support of her dissolute husband.

Colt CaseAppealed.
Lisbon, February 10.—(Special)—The case of Maggie Givens against Page Myler, a constable, has been appealed from Justice Moore's court, in St. Clair township. The suit was originally brought for the possession of a horse which had been seized by the constable, and the jury in the justice's court had found for the plaintiff.

Appointed Coroner.
Dr. D. J. Jones, of Lisbon, has been appointed coroner by the county commissioners, Major John L. Straughn, the coroner elect, having refused to qualify. Dr. Jones has no opposition as a candidate for the Republican nomination for that office.

A WARM SESSION IS PROBABLE

IMPORTANT MATTERS TO COME
BEFORE COUNCIL MEETING.

No Proposition from the C. & P.—Mr. Peach Wants to Know a Few Things.

The session of council to be held this evening promises to be a warm one. All important matters pending for months will be brought up and heated arguments cannot help ensuing. There are several questions which the body is about evenly divided upon that will be sprung and an attempt will be made to railroad them through. The members feel that this will be practically the last night that any business will be done and all are going to the meeting with the determination of getting through everything that they have fathomed or favored.

It is known, however, that no proposition of any kind will be presented from the C. & P. railroad. The committee appointed by council to confer with the officials of the board state that they are positive that nothing will be done by the latter until the new council is elected. Just how they will proceed with the new body is not known, but they undoubtedly have a card up their sleeve, one that could not work on the present membership.

Councilman Peach announces that he intends to have one question answered tonight which the people are very anxious about and know absolutely nothing. "I am going to demand an answer from the city solicitor on this question," said Mr. Peach: "Have the taxpayers of East Liverpool a right to dictate or advise council upon action in regard to the improvement of the streets, alleys and avenues of the city? If they have, why is it that they have not been given a chance for action or the proposed laying of a water pipe along Pennsylvania avenue?

"I think it is an outrage that the water works trustees will sanction and allow the water works superintendent to go ahead and do the work according to his own views, when the people should be considered. When the committee of council agreed to let the line be laid it was with the understanding that not one foot of the paving along the avenue should be disturbed. I understand that the agreement is to be broken, and if it is I most assuredly will do all within my power to stop the work. An injunction will be asked for and I have no doubt about it being granted."

THE MAYOR CANNOT UNDERSTAND IT

Fails to See How a Man Always Has Money to Buy Drink But Never
to Pay a Fine

Dan Gourley faced the mayor again this morning. As usual he was charged with drunkenness. Officer Morri nabbed him late yesterday afternoon while he was attempting to shove over a telephone pole at Sixth and Franklin streets. The mayor was at first undecided as to the severity of the sentence to be placed upon his frequent visitor, but finally imposed $5.00.

In arguing the question the mayor could not determine how it is that a man can always raise enough money to get drunk and can never raise the price of a fine. Dan will have to pay or remain a few days behind the bars.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, February 10.—(Special)—Peter A. Gallagher and Miss B. Josephine Collins, of Salineville, were granted a marriage license.

The following marriage licenses were granted today: Charles J. Allford and Miss Caldie T. Hile, of East Liverpool; H. H. Thompson and Viola Stevenson, of East Liverpool; James W. Garey and Miss Margaret Wright, of Wellsville.

POTTERS' ASSOCIATION COMMITTEE IN SESSION

A meeting of the executive committee of the United States Potters' Association is in progress here today in the rooms of the Potters' club on Fifth street. The eastern branch of the committee arrived in the city from Trenton this morning and are guests at the Thompson house. Besides the members of the committee there are a number of potters in the city from nearby towns.

The selling agreement by which the members of the association are controlled has been in force since the first of the year, and the effect it has upon the trade will likely be one of the important matters discussed.

The Trenton potters are represented by Messrs. Daniel Willets, J. E. Willets, J. E. Norris and William Burgess, all well known in the eastern pottery center.

DR. LLOYD HERE AS MISSIONER

Installed in His Work at St. Stephen's With Impressive Services.

Dealing With the Economics And the Principles of Christianity—Earnest Words Urging Churchmen to Work For the Cause of Christ.

Those who attended the parochial mission services at St. Stephen's church last evening anticipating a meeting of religious and spiritual enjoyment were certainly not disappointed. It was one that appealed to all for a decided effort during the weeks set aside for evangelistic work, and one that pointed out explicitly the great reward that awaits the true and zealous Christian.

The presence of Dr. F. E. J. Lloyd, D. O., of the Cleveland diocese, added much to the impressiveness of the service in many ways. After being installed as missioner by the rector, Rev. Edwin Weary, he took full charge and handled the meeting in the manner that brought forth so much praise and close relationship to the members of the church during his mission work in the city four years ago.

He announced his gratification at being again with the friends that he had made and his willingness to greet all persons in the congregation who were desirous of help or assistance in the understanding of God's teachings.

On the subject, "Christian Economy," he preached eloquently and in part said:

"Animate and inanimate; visible and invisible. Those words are synonymous of two—God and man. They travel two indestructible paths. Man is born according to the purpose of God. He does not come as the result of passion. He is not chance, God is the maker of all things, our bodies minds and spirits. How then can we stand up and defy Him? Can you bluff him as the sun? Can you put out the moon? Can you make the north wind low south? No, of course you cannot stand up alone to do those things. Being powerful and loving you with all the power that He possesses, how can you disregard Him? Did God design us to be on the earth on the level with the brutes that crawl over the surface? No, God designed us to be on the level with Him, to be His chosen companion.

"God did not create you to love yourself in the world, in the pleasures of the flesh, but that you be His own peculiar child, His darling. Men refuse to answer to God, their Maker. Seeing and understanding that God and man are separate facts—Creator and creature—man must be responsible to God for everything. God longs to take us unto His fold. He has provided for us a religion which, if we accept it, will take us to Him. Christian religion is an economy of salvation. It is designed first to bring the realization of facts and second the responsibility of appreciating and co-operating with God. The economy of Christian religion is not designed to save souls alone but also the mind and body. The three are as one with Jesus. He wishes to save us at all times. Why don't you go to him now?"

"Christ lives. All the great are dead but He. They are asleep, waiting in paradise for the eternal and last resting place. Why does Christ live? He lives as a savior. He is living to save the lives of those disposed to have them saved. A man leading a licentious life may decide to accept the love of Christ and be saved, but the

NO PLACE YET FOUND FOR WILLIE COOK

Effort Will Be Made to Get Him Admitted to Lancaster By Special Privilege.

Lisbon, February 10.—(Special)—Sheriff Leonard, in charge of Willie Cook, the 8-year-old incorrigible of Walker, has arrived in the city from Lancaster after an unsuccessful attempt to place the lad in the Boys' Industrial home.

He has been confined in a cell for the insane in the county jail. An unsuccessful effort was made to commit him to the Fairmount home, and the authorities are now trying to get him admitted to Lancaster under a special privilege, as there seems to be no other place for him.

Lisbon, February 10.—(Special)—In the case of Horace W. Tetlow vs. George W. Abbott, which came up from Mayor Jonathan Longbottom's court, Washington, a motion that the plaintiff be required to make his petition more specific was overruled.

The plaintiff alleges in this case that the defendant forcibly entered the dwelling of the former and kept the family from the possession of the house and its furnishings for many days. He places the damage and inconvenience at $100.

BRUNER'S PETITION IS BEING HEARD

PROPERTY HOLDER SEEKS TO ENJOIN WELLSVILLE CITY.

Claims the Contract For the Paving of Maple Alley Was Not According to Law.

Lisbon, February 10.—(Special)—The case of Philip Bruner against Mayor W. L. Foggo and the remaining officials of Wellsville is being tried before the court today on a statement of facts. Attorney W. F. Jones represents the plaintiff and Judge P. M. Smith and Solicitor Boyd, the city.

The plaintiff as a taxpayer seeks to enjoin the city from the paving of Maple alley in Wellsville. The grounds given are that the money was not in the treasury at the time the contract was let. The certificate of the clerk was on file, but between the time of filing it and the letting of the contract the money had been withdrawn from the treasury.

The answer is that while the money was withdrawn the city's share, about $190, has been returned to the treasury from the road fund. It is held by the defendants that the city's share one-fiftieth of the total cost, is all that the law requires should be in the treasury.

Rapid progress is being made on the

RAPID PROGRESS BEING MADE EXTENDING NEW WATER MAIN TO THE EAST END DISTRICTS

Despite Many Obstacles, Such as Cutting Through Hard Rock, Work Is Going Forward Well.

Rapid progress is being made on the construction of the new 12-inch water main to the East End. Already several hundred feet of the pipe have been laid. The work is being done under the supervision of Supt. Phil Morley, and at the present his force of workmen numbers about 40. The promptness with which this much-needed and important improvement was commenced after securing the loan from the East End manufacturers reflects great credit upon the water works department. The amount of work done so far is surprising when the severe weather encountered is taken into consideration.

The depth at which the pipes will be laid varies from four to 18 feet, and in many places the trenches were cut through solid rock, requiring a great deal of blasting. The pipe laying was started at a point near the Italian shanties, this being necessary owing to the failure to arrive of certain pieces necessary for the connections at the reservoir. The route of the line from the reservoir to Pennsylvania avenue has been laid out, and where it comes down over the brow of the hill onto the avenue there is a sheer descent of from 120 to 150 feet.

The length of the line from the reservoir to Mulberry street in the East End, which is to be laid with 12-inch pipe, is 6,800 feet. From the juncture of Pennsylvania avenue and Mulberry street an eight-inch line will be constructed south on the latter street to Railroad street, a distance of 800 feet.

It will connect at Railroad street with the old line. A six-inch line will be built east on Pennsylvania avenue, from Mulberry street to Boice street, a distance of 1,200 feet, and will connect with the old six-inch main. By these connections the East End district will have both the old and the new lines as a source of supply.

It is estimated that it will require another month to complete the work the entire cost of which will be in the neighborhood of $16,000. The pressure on the 12-inch main, it is estimated, will be about 120 pounds.

While it will be impossible to complete the improvement prior to the expiration of a number of the policies carried by East End manufacturers, it is thought that the risks will be renewed in view of the effort that is being made to remedy the insufficient water supply. It is not believed that the companies will advance their premium rates.

A SCORE OF JUDGES NAMED BY GOV. NASH

Remarkably Long List of Judicial Appointments Made By Present Executive.

Columbus, February 10.—(Special)—In the matter of judicial appointments Governor Nash has all his predecessors beaten to a finish. He has already appointed 16 common pleas judges, three probate judges and one police judge, 29 in all, and there are now two common pleas vacancies to be filled. One is caused by the resignation of Judge Festus Walters, of Circleville, and the other by the death of Judge W. W. Savage, of Wilmington.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

CLAY MODELING.

The scope offered for clay modeling in architecture is immense. Every intricate adornment of a beautiful building in this city has been worked out in clay. It is only recently comparatively, that women have realized how advantageously this field could be worked by them. Now one finds the girl art student daubing herself recklessly with the sticky, gray, green clay, girls putting apart a corner at home for modeling pretty knicknacs, and others turning their ability to account in factories and potteries. An insight into the actual processes of the artist who models his figures from clay will enlighten those who are interested in the methods by which the clay is worked and managed from the time it is put in the mold form, whether it is the length human figure or a simple leaf of a plant. Modeling in clay is the sketch which the artist makes before the work is put in plaster, bronze, stone, marble or whatever material is chosen. Wax is used by jewelers, it being of suitable consistency for the work. A substance called plastalina is greatly used for the first sketches for the model, but it disagrees to some sculptors on account of its greasy constituency. Its advantages are that it always stays in the same condition and does not have to be kneaded or wet as the clay does. If a softer consistency is desired, a little cottoleone mixed with it produces the right effect. It is used for the most part for small work, although a seven or even a nine foot figure has been put up in it. Clay, however, is more generally used. The term is applied in a vague way to those kinds of earth or soil which, when moist, have a sufficient degree of tenacity and plasticity to be satisfactorily molded. They owe their origin to the decomposition of other minerals.

SHORTAGE OF WARE.

A shortage of ware compelled the decalcomania department to lay off yesterday and today. The shortage is the result of the broken lawn in the slip house, the effects of which have just been encountered in the decorating room. The Sevres is doing a large volume of decalcomania work and has the largest force employed in the history of the plant. A number of new tables have been built to accommodate the increased number of operatives.

RESISTED THE OFFICERS.

Hugh Moutz, Roy Welch, Free Allison, James Rayle, Ben Davis and Peter Milliron drove out to the gypsy camp, a mile from town on the Lisbon road, Sunday, to have their fortunes told. Several of the boys are to be millionaires, according to the mendicants, but they are not yet planning how they will spend the money.

CONQUERED TYPHOID.

According to Ernest Vilk, a noted historian, pottery was made in Trenton, N. J., at least 300 years before the first white man landed on New Jersey fever, is now convalescent and was out on the street for a short time Saturday. He is still in a weakened condition, however, and it will be some time yet before he can resume work.

FLUE BURNED OUT.

A burned out flue at the Thompson necessitated closing down the plant and all departments were off yesterday excepting the decorating part. It was necessary to let the boiler cool in order to make repairs. It is thought the repairs can be completed today.

A NEW PRESSER.

Edward Ball, formerly of Sebring, has concluded to make East Liverpool his home and can be found in the pressing room at the Sevres, where he has taken a job making cover dishes.

He is a pleasant young man and has already made a number of friends.

JIGGERS CHANGED.

A change has been made in the jigger shops at the Sevres, the two plate jiggers, operated by Tom Hill and Cyrus Scaratt, taking the place of two fruit jiggers, operated by Messrs. Garvey and Sanford. The change was made on account of the dry rooms.

SCHELL IMPROVING.

Carl Schell, of Burford's, who has been laid up for a month or more with inflammatory rheumatism, is reported much better today. The dance given for his benefit was a complete success and a neat sum was realized.

AMONG THE WORKMEN.

Archie Winters has taken a job as decorative kilman at the Sevres.

Miss Susan Mason, of the biscuit warehouse at the Sevres, has resigned her position.

Misses Ollie and Allie Beaver, of the biscuit warehouse at the Sevres, are working out their notice.

Thomas Fulmer, batterout for Jigerman Thomas Cooper, at the Sevres, has resigned and John Reese has succeeded him.

John Kagle, who has been out of the trade for some time, started to work this morning at the East Liverpool. He is a presser.

Thomas Cooper, the big jiggeman at the Sevres, who was confined to his home several days last week with sickness, returned to work yesterday.

Joseph Heckathorn, who has been employed as dishmaker at the West End, will leave this week for Lisbon, where he has taken a position on the dish bench at the Thomas plant.

Ben Wise, jiggeman at the Sevres, was compelled to loaf yesterday owing to the absence of his batterout. James Brighouse, who was called to Lisbon as a witness in a law suit.

A Prisoner in Her House.

Mrs. W. H. Lavha, of 1001 Agnes avenue, Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed by physicians with no noticeable results.

A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be in my house constantly." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

The remainder of the 14 members who are contenting themselves with hotel life this winter are scattered around some of the best hotels in the city. At the Arlington, famous the country over and known also abroad, is Mr. Gordon, of St. Mary's. Mr. Gill, of Steubenville, also lived there last winter, but this year he is staying at the New Willard. Colonel Nevin, of Dayton, is at the Gordon, a fashionable hotel a few minutes' walk from the White House. Mr. Skiles, of Shelby, is a guest of the Normandie, where Speaker Henderson and many other members of the house live. Mr. Snock, of Paulding, stays at the Varnum, a small family hotel near the capitol.

Perhaps the only man in the Ohio delegation in the house who has practically all the comforts of a home in Washington is Mr. Beldler, of Cleveland. When he came to Washington a little over a year ago as the representative of the Twentieth district Mr. Beldler leased the large four-story brick house on K'street which the late John Sherman occupied before he built the magnificent stone mansion adjoining which he occupied up to the time of his death. The house fronts on Franklin square, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, and is comfortable and commodious, and situated in a fashionable residence district. Mr. Beldler's family is with him, and he makes the best of his annual sojourn in Washington.

General Dick, of Akron, is living with his law partner, Major Fred Bryan, in the outskirts of the city. Mr. Burton, of Cleveland, occupies the second floor of a physician's residence a couple of doors from the Metropolitan club, of which he is a member. He took these apartments when he first came to Washington, more than a decade ago, and has grown so accustomed to them that it would be almost like leaving "the old homestead" to move to other quarters. Mr. Burton usually takes his meals at his club, which in standing compares with the Union club of Cleveland.

Dr. Norton, of Tiffin, has a cozy flat in the Cumberland, one of the many new apartment houses of the capital. The building fronts on Thomas circle, and is within convenient distance of the executive departments. Mr. Brownell, of Cincinnati; Mr. Cassingham, of Coshocton, and Mr. Morgan, of Oak Hill, are boarding.

The only member of the Ohio delegation who owns his home in Washington is Senator Foraker. The senior senator has a beautiful house on Sixteenth street at the corner of P street, one of the most desirable residence sections of the city. The house is four stories in height and is built of yellow pressed brick with stone trimmings. It is one of the handsomest residences in Washington and was constructed upon the senator's own plans. When Mr. Foraker was first elected to the senate he concluded, after considering all sides of the living problem, that it would be best to build a home of his own so that he and his family could live in comfort during his senatorial career. The Foraker home is the scene of many fine social functions, he and Mrs. Foraker doing a great deal of entertaining during every congressional session.

Senator Hanna and his family are very comfortably fixed at the Arlington hotel, although it is quite likely he will lease a house next winter. The senator and his household occupy ten or a dozen of the best rooms in the hotel on the first floor above the street. The Arlington is the home of some of the leading public men of the nation. Two cabinet officers—Secretary of War Root and Postmaster General Payne—live there, and so do Senators Aldrich, Spooner, Platt, of Connecticut; Platt, of New York; Foster, of Washington, and Alger, of Michigan. There is no more influential group of men in the senate than Hanna, Aldrich, Spooner and Platt, and these four men frequently hold important conferences in each other's rooms.

In Probate Court.

Lisbon, February 10.—(Special)—There being no executor named in the will of the late William Iches, of Know township, Nancy Iches is appointed administratrix under bond of $4,000.

The will of the late Richard Hetherington, of Washington township, has been admitted to probate and the court has appointed Charles Hetherington administrator under bond of $200. There will be no appraisement.

The sale of real estate by H. H. Essick, administrator of the estate of the late William Essick, of West township, has been confirmed and deed and distribution ordered.

The Problem of Living in Washington a Serious One for Congressmen.

IN THE OHIO DELEGATION

Fourteen Persons Content Themselves With Hotel Life—Ohio Colonies at Several Hostelries—One Representative Occupies Sherman House.

Washington, February 10.—Legislative questions may trouble them, the appeals of office seekers may annoy, and the uncertainty of political fortune may cause anxiety, but none of these is a source of more vexation to the average member of congress than the problem of living in Washington.

If you cannot call at his store today, send him 25 cents by mail, and he will send you a package, promptly, charged paid.

B. C. Ansley has been able to secure only a limited supply of the specific, but it disagrees to some sculptors on account of its greasy constituency. Its advantages are that it always stays in the same condition and does not have to be kneaded or wet as the clay does. If a softer consistency is desired, a little cottoleone mixed with it produces the right effect. It is used for the most part for small work, although a seven or even a nine foot figure has been put up in it. Clay, however, is more generally used. The term is applied in a vague way to those kinds of earth or soil which, when moist, have a sufficient degree of tenacity and plasticity to be satisfactorily molded. They owe their origin to the decomposition of other minerals.

Special Meeting at Second Presbyterian Church Able Addressed By Rev. A. R. Van Fossen.

The meeting at the Second Presbyterian church last night was one of the most interesting yet held. Monday nights the attendance is usually small, but last night the attendance was good and an excellent sermon was delivered by Rev. A. R. Van Fossen, of Allegheny. He chose for his text, "I have become all things to all men, that by all means I might save some."

Rev. Mr. Van Fossen will remain all week and have charge of the services. Quite a number of new members have been received into the church.

Case Compromised.

The suit brought yesterday by Ethel D. Powell against the Adams Express company for $25 in Justice W. L. Carman's court did not come up for trial. The case was compromised by the defendant paying $14.88 and the costs in the action.

Ben Hur Meeting.

Pan-American court, Tribe of Ben Hur, held its regular meeting last night at the P. H. C. hall. A large number of persons were initiated into the lodge and a very interesting meeting resulted.

Rushing Railroad Work.

The grading work on the C. & P. is rapidly being extended all along the line of the road in the city and particularly in the East End. The work has practically been completed from Kalston's crossing to Mulberry street, and today a large number of men are busily engaged at this work. The Mi-o-na Sold Under Druggist Will Reed's "No Cure No Pay" Plan.

A man or woman might as well starve outright as to take food into the stomach and not have it digested, yet in East Liverpool as well as in many other town and city, there are many people who are thin, pale and seem underfed, simply because the food they eat is not digested, the stomach is too weak to do its proper work, and the food fails to make good blood and firm flesh.

Mi-o-na, the wonderful flesh-forming food and scientific remedy for the cure of dyspepsia, taken after meals mingles with the food and enables it to assimilate and be readily digested so as to make rich blood and pleasing plumpness. No one can use it for a week or ten days without a noticeable gain in weight. It is the only remedy used in the treatment of stomach troubles where the money is refunded if it does not cure. Statistics show that out of every one hundred people who commence the use of Mi-o-na, 98 will find a gain in weight and a restoration of health and strength.

Any one who has dyspepsia, whose food does not digest well, who has to take thought as to what to eat, and when, or who is thin, weak, scrawny, and emancipated can place 50c on deposit with Will Reed and take home a box of Mi-o-na. If the remedy does not regulate digestion, cure dyspepsia, and give a noticeable increase in good, firm flesh, he will return the money without any questions.

work is also being pushed in the upper end of the city and a large force of laborers are at work there. By spring it is hoped that the grading work will be in such an advanced stage that the active work of the construction of the road can be begun then.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Put Me On Active List.

Are you well? Do you sleep well? Do you get up rested, fresh and vigorous? Is your mind clear and active? If not read the following. See what another has suffered and how he recovered.

"Some time ago I was afflicted with sun stroke which left me with a shattered nervous system and exceedingly poor health. I suffered terribly with pain in my head, the top of my head would feel hot. I could not study, and after striving for two years to wear the trouble off, I was compelled to give up my pastoral labor and retire to my farm where I spent nearly two years trying to recuperate. It was all of no avail. Physicians' treatments and patent medicines failed to relieve me. I was exceedingly nervous and irritable and sometimes would shake terribly. I could not bear any noise. The least excitement the blood would rush to my head and head. Two years ago I was induced to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. After using one bottle I could see improvement in my condition so I continued taking it for nearly a year. I am happy to say I no longer have any pains in my head or nervous spells. My appetite is good and I am able to preach three times on Sunday without fatigue. I consider Dr. Miles' Nervine the most wonderful medicine ever discovered."—Rev. D. Alex. Holman, Pastor, U. B. Working For a Senator.

Charles Marvin, will for the second time since he has been training horses, be employed by a United States senator. Mr. Marvin years ago trained and drove exclusively the horses of Senator Leland Stanford and developed many fast ones. He has last week sold all of his unnecessary appurtenances at Ashland park and removed to old John C. Breckinridge's place, now owned by Senator J. W. Bailey, of Texas. He will prepare a number of horses of his own for the February sales and then take up the training stable of Senator Bailey, probably taking the string down the grand circuit the coming season.

THE ADVANCE IN MINING RATESMEANS TEN CENTS A TON IN COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

Percy Tetlow, Sub-District President, Talks of the Effect of the New Scale.

Columbus, February 10.—(Special)—Percy Tetlow, president of the sub-district comprising most of the mines in Columbiana county, excepting those at Saineville and vicinity, stopped off in Columbus while returning from the convention of miners and operators at Indianapolis to his home at Washingtonville.

"We shall have peace for a year, anyhow," said Mr. Tetlow. "I never attended a more satisfactory and harmonious meeting. We did not get all we asked, but we got a substantial advance. The scale adopted for Ohio, western Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois miners provides for an advance of 12½ per cent for the pick miners to 22 per cent for the drivers, making an average of about 14 per cent clear. This is the basic rate, with Hocking Valley as the base, and these states will make the wage scale on these percentages.

"In Columbiana county the miners have been getting 88 cents a ton for mining, while in Hocking the rate is 80 cents. The new agreement gives us 98 cents and the Hocking 90. These local rates are governed by the thickness of the veins of coal and their accessibility.

"The operators conceded an advance of eight cents on machine mining, making the rate 61 cents. I understand it is claimed by at least some of the operators that this advance in wages will compel them to advance the price per ton to the consumer to meet the millions of dollars that will be added to the pay roll. I do not believe a word of it. At the old rates there was a difference of 27 cents per ton between machine and pick mined coal, and the operators made tremendous profits, for at least two-thirds of the coal is machine mined. They will still have the differential and their profits will be just as big."

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1903.

It is not too early to remind the candidates for municipal office of what will be expected of them, in case they are successful. East Liverpool has a few urgent needs which the new administration ought to be pledged to work for. Among them are clean streets, improved sidewalks, prohibition of the unnecessary obstruction and littering of streets and sidewalks with rubbish, careful renumbering of houses, the establishment of fire limits within which the erection of frame and flimsy structures shall be forbidden, the ridding of the city of suspicious characters and the total annihilation of the hold-up industry. These are by no means all the reforms desirable and necessary, but the list may serve as suggestions which enterprising candidates are at liberty to adopt as part of their platform and to add to as they see fit.

The hardships of the rural free delivery mail carrier on the route leading out of Wellsville would be unnecessary had Columbiana county wakened up years ago to the importance of good roads. It is by no means improbable that some of the rural routes lately started in this city will have to be discontinued, simply because the roads are so bad. This would be a humiliation as well as a great loss. But a community that is content to remain behind the age in the important matter of roads cannot expect to share benefits and advantages devised wholly for those who are progressive. Columbiana county has the means to build good highways and should promptly take steps to wipe out her present and long-standing disgrace.

In reply to a question from a Cincinnati paper asking whether he would accept another nomination for the presidency, Grover Cleveland replied: "I cannot possibly bring my mind to the belief that a condition or sentiment exists that makes any expression from me on the subject of the least import-

The Democratic leaders are arguing that their presidential candidate must be an eastern man and unknown. It will not be difficult to find such a man, but how is the party going to persuade him to make the race?

Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, is credited with possessing $50,000,000. Making a liberal deduction for exaggeration, it is safe to assert that his winter's coal bill will not worry him when it is presented.

Hazing is not to be tolerated at the Annapolis naval academy. The government runs that school, and the present superintendent proposes that it shall run as a national institution ought to be.

Whether Rockefeller wrote the letters or not, they appear to have convinced congress that the president is right and that an anti-trust bill must be passed.

OBITUARY

William B. Mahan.

Steubenville, February 10.—William B. Mahan died at his home, 506 Sixth avenue, yesterday, in the seventieth year of his age. He was a native of Hancock county, W. Va., a son of Thomas Mahan, a well known and prominent early settler, and was born at the old homestead March 21, 1833. He received a good country school education and turned his attention to farming and became one of the famous fruit growers of the Ohio valley. He moved to Brooke county in 1853 and became the owner of the Mahan homestead and part of the land at the lower ferry and lived there until he sold his part of the land with his brother last year to the Follansbee Tin Plate company and moved to this city. He was a man of sterling integrity and honor, a good citizen and a progressive man. He married Margaret Browning in 1858 and they lived handily, surrounded by their children until last April when the beloved wife passed away. The children are: Frank, of this city; Elizabeth, wife of W. E. Wells, of East Liverpool; Emma, wife of William Crawford, of this city; Irene, wife of Dr. Cummings, of Wellsville, and Misses Lou and Grace at home. He also is survived by his venerable mother, who lives at the home of his sister, Mrs. Barbara Henry, of Wellsville, and is now in her ninety-third year. Besides these members of his family he leaves three brothers: R. W. Mahan, of Steubenville; T. J.

WELLSVILLE

AN ALLEGED BIGAMIST

Man Lately Married in Wellsville Is Reported to Have Three Wives.

It is reported here that a railroad man, who only a few weeks ago was married to a popular West End young lady, has no less than three wives living, from none of which he has been divorced. His first wife, it is said, resides in Cleveland, his second wife in West Virginia, a short distance down the river, and his third in the West End.

Before coming to this city, he is said to have lived with his second wife in Ironton. He was employed by the C. & P. road as brakeman. One child is said to have been born of the first union and one to the second. He is now among the missing. He was last seen Saturday on the railroad pay car, when it went out the main line, having secured that run for the day. It is said that Cleveland authorities are looking for him.

Council May Meet.

An adjourned meeting of the city council may be held this evening, at which the differences existing between the city and the East Liverpool Street Railway company will be adjusted relative to the payment of the electric light bill by the city and the payment of the street paving assessments by the street railway company. Manager Healy, who is at the head of both the light company and the street railway company, will probably be present if a meeting is held.

Water Works Trustees to Meet.

A special meeting of the board of water works trustees will be held this evening in their office in the city building at which time it is expected that Consulting Engineer Bowen will be present and make his report on the bids received and opened by the board last Friday noon. He will report the lowest and most favorable bid of the thirty or more which were received and will make a recommendation to the board of the bid which they should accept.

Hunting the Missing Pair.

Mrs. Harry Carothers, wife of the man who is alleged to have left last Saturday evening with the wife of August Slotfield, went to Pittsburgh yesterday in search of her husband and it was reported in the West End last evening that both had been found by her. It cannot be stated positively at present whether this report is true or not. Mr. Slotfield has applied to the Pittsburgh police to institute a vigorous search for his wife.

An Enjoyable Smoker.

A very enjoyable smoker was held last evening in Potters' hall by Local Union No. 310, Boiler Makers. A large crowd was present, including representatives of all of the local unions in the city. Several East Liverpool men were also present. The evening was very pleasantly spent and stories were enjoyed. The Boiler Makers' union in this city has become quite a strong one.

Costly to Talk Politics.

George Akers, of East Liverpool, endeavored to talk politics to Chief of Police Housner yesterday and was taken to the city lockup, charged with intoxication. He will have a chance to talk to the mayor some time today and the conversation is likely to cost him $4.00.

SWARING COMES HIGH

Lon Shaffer Had $18.65 to Pay For Using Bad Language in a Street Car.

Lon Shaffer was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant sworn out by George R. Abrechts, in Justice Johnston's court. The arrest was made by Chief Allison. Shaffer was charged with using profane language in a street car. He secured Judge Butler to defend him and later sent for Attorney George E. Davidson, of East Liverpool. The latter got there while a jury was being drawn and sworn in and after examining the charge found that the smallest penalty that might be given was a fine of $25 and 30 days in jail.

He immediately asked the state to modify its charge and it was made to read disorderly conduct.

Several witnesses were examined and the defendant, Shaffer, was found guilty by the justice and fined $10 and costs, amounting to $18.65. Several other arrests were expected at the same time, but it was finally decided simply to make an example of one of the party of five who were said to be implicated.

NEW OFFICERS

Of the Presbyterian Church to Be Installed in Chester Thursday Evening.

The installation of the new officers and elders of the Chester Presbyterian church will be held Thursday night at the U. P. church where the Presbyterians have been holding their meetings.

It is expected that a number of different preachers will occupy the pulpit for the congregation in the spring. They will not be in a hurry to call a pastor and will also try to make arrangements for the building of a new church in the spring.

MILL WILL RESUME.

It is thought that the tin mill will begin operations again tomorrow, after being shut down in the hot rolls department for a few days because of the breaking of one of the big drive wheels on the engine. The other departments of the mill have been working steadily as the break down did not affect them.

A CLERKS' LOCAL TALKED OF

The clerks of Chester are still talking of organizing a local in order to compel all the stores to close early. So far there has been but two stores where they refused to close at 7 o'clock. The rest have agreed to close at 7 and are doing so. A united effort will be made to bring the other two stores in line.

MISSIONARY SUPPER PROFITABLE.

The Ladies Missionary society of the Chester U. P. church held a meeting last night at the home of Mrs. Samuel Tuton, of Indiana avenue, and the reports from the committees in charge of the supper given last week were received. The reports showed that $69.75 had been cleared by the affair.

IN NEED OF REPAIRS.

Justice A. G. Pugh expects to have a slate roof put on his new office building on Virginia avenue. The heavy winds there last week tore off part of the roof of the office and it was simply put in place in a temporary manner.

CHESTER NOTES.

A. F. Wilson, ex-sheriff, of New Cumberland, was a business visitor in Chester today.

Mrs. Lena Ginther, of Pittsburgh, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Louise Jackson, of Third street.

Miss Pearl Glass was confined to the house for several days recently on account of an attack of grip.

The family of G. D. Allison, of Asbury, are recovering from an attack of pneumonia and rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Haldeman, of Pittsburg, were the guests of T. J. Croxall, of Carolina avenue, Sunday and Monday.

Rev. E. C. Lindsey and his father are moving from their present residence on Indiana avenue to Adolphus street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Baxter entertained a number of young people last night in a very pleasant manner with music and dancing.

MRS. CARL BARTH

USED A HATCHET

With That Weapon She Destroyed a Fence—Held Fir the Grand Jury.

In the case of the state against Mrs. Carl Barth on trial in Squire McLane's court all of yesterday, the defendant was bound over to common pleas court in the sum of $200. Mrs. Barth was charged with maliciously tearing down a fence that surrounded an orchard belonging to William Anderson, which is located about one mile west of the city.

The testimony showed that the defendant had torn down the fence with a hatchet, pick and maddock. It is said that Mrs. Barth will attempt to prove that the fence was on property belonging to her husband and therefore she had a perfect right to do as she pleased with it.

Both sides were represented by an attorney and much interest was taken in the trial. It has been brewing for about two years and seems to be the result of a dispute over a line fence.

A CANDIDATE ILL OF SMALLPOX

Dr. R. J. Marshall Has the Disease, But in a Mild Form—Every Pre-caution Taken.

A number of physicians who were called to see Dr. R. J. Marshall, at his home in the East End this afternoon, pronounced his malady to be smallpox. Dr. Marshall, one of the mayoralty candidates, has been ill and confined to his home since last Thursday. Friday and Saturday he was a very sick man, but since he has shown a marked improvement and his condition is not regarded as serious.

A consultation of physicians was held yesterday, but any announcement as to the nature of the disease was postponed until after the consultation this afternoon. The physicians state that the disease is in a very mild form and at the present time no serious results are feared. Every precaution has been taken to prevent the spread of the infection.

CHARLES H. BERG

The Popular Ex-Councilman a Candidate to Represent the Fourth Ward.

There are a number of candidates for councilman in the Fourth ward, but the candidacy of Charles H. Berg is attracting more attention than that of any other aspirant in the race. Mr. Berg is not new in the councilmanic business, and by reason of having served several terms in the body a few years ago has had sufficient experience in the office to make him a valuable man for the people of his ward in particular and the citizens generally. So well were his efforts appreciated while a councilman that he was honored with the position of president during one year of his term. No move was made for the betterment and upholding of the city that he did not take a leading part, and is it for this reason that his friends have been so much concerned in his becoming a candidate at this time.

Mr. Berg is a good business man and a conservative citizen. He is always and ever awake to the best interests of East Liverpool, and if honored with a place upon the Republican ticket as a councilman he will fill the office to the entire satisfaction of his constituents.

VERY WARM FOR BAER

Criticism of Coal Companies Causes Considerable Contention.

THE OPERATORS RESPONSIBLE.

Large Number of Foreigners in Anthracite Region Due to Coal Companies—The Union Upheld by Congressman Brumm.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—Attorneys for the miners began their arguments before the arbitration committee yesterday. Among those present was President Baer, of the Reading. Mr. Baer's presence resulted in a sensational scene. Former Congressman Charles M. Brumm devoted his argument principally in support of the demand for recognition of the union. He said that organization is the essence of government. Mr. Brumm charged that the coal companies were responsible for the presence of the large foreign population in the coal regions, and said:

"They can't bring the Hottentots here because it is too cold; they can't bring the Eskimos here because it is too warm, and they can't get the Chinaman because the law will not let him in."

When Mr. Brumm, in an oratorical flight, said that Mr. Baer denied at the eleventh hour that he had ever said 21 murders were committed in the coal regions—that he did not deny it until the statement was permitted to go over the country and receive ful effect, Mr. Baer jumped up and exclaimed:

FIND A SPANISH GRANDEE.

"Wasn't it a lie? Did I ever say it?" The suddenness of the interruption evidently did not disturb Mr. Brumm, who replied:

"One moment; I will answer that."

Mr. Baer was not satisfied, and he said, with great earnestness:

"You said I did not deny until the eleventh hour. What do you mean?"

"I said you did not deny it until quite recently," to which Mr. Baer replied: "Oh."

"If you had waited," said Mr. Brumm, "you would not have asked the question."

Henry Demarest Lloyd, of Chicago, argued for the fourth demand of the mine workers, that for the recognition of the union and trade agreement. He gave a history of wage agreements in the bituminous fields and argued that their success proved their value to operators as well as miners.

"The trade agreement need not and does not interfere with the employment of non-union men," he said. "The mine workers in America have never gone on a strike against the employment of non-union men." The easiest objection of all to meet is that a monopoly of labor would be created by recognizing the union. There can be no monopoly if union men and non-union men are allowed to work side by side. It is not the non-union man the unionist fears, but the 'scab,' the strike breaker by trade, who lives by getting odd jobs of industrial assassination at high wages and loafs between whiskeys."

FIGHTING IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Two Americans Are Killed and Two Wounded—The Enemy Left Fifteen Dead.

Manila, Feb. 10.—A force of 100 constabulary, under Inspector Keithley, yesterday defeated a body of 200 insurgents near Mariluina, a small town seven miles from Manila City, after a severe engagement, in which Inspector Harris and one man of the constabulary were killed and two other men of the constabulary wounded. Those who attended the meeting were President John Mitchell, Vice President Thomas L. Lewis, Secretary W. B. Wilson and all the board members except William Morgan, district No. 6, and James B. Wood, district No. 23. The board will adjourn today to meet later in the month. President Mitchell will leave tonight or tomorrow for Philadelphia.

Revolutionists at It Again.

Caracas, Feb. 10.—A force of 2,000 men with 50 horses and two guns, under the command of Minister of War General Ferrer, left Caracas yesterday morning in the direction of the seaport Higuro, 50 miles east of Caracas. The object of the expedition is to attack a body of 1,500 revolutionaries under General Monagas, who are reported to be too feeble to attack the government, but strong enough to devastate the district around Rio Chico, and daily enter and pillage the town. Even ardent revolutionaries seem to recognize that President Castro is master of the situation. The governmental troops captured the town of Guatire at noon, and are now marching on Rio Chico.

Suspected Woman Creates Scene.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Standing at the side of the coffin of her husband, for whose death the police believe she is responsible, Mrs. Mary Flynn created a scene in the presence of friends. The woman, who has been held pending the outcome of the coroner's inquest, was given permission to attend the funeral. Mrs. Flynn became hysterical as she gazed on the body, and throwing herself on the coffin, she kissed the face of her husband and sobbed, "Oh, my darling Jim, I did not mean to strike you. Forgive me." Mrs. Flynn is 40 years old. Her brother is James Barry, retired champion weight pugilist.

Rare Coins.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 10.—John Oglezki unearthed a tin box yesterday while engaged in digging a deep trench. The box contained a large collection of rare coins, many of them dating back over 100 years.

NOT ABLE TO AGREE.

Provisions of the Several Protocols Demand More Than Bowen Thinks Just.

WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.

Protocols Will Remain Unsigned Until Relieved of Objectionable Actions -- The Misunderstandings Soon to Be Cleared Up.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Although Mr. Bowen and the other negotiators are closely guarding the provisions of the several protocols it is understood that the demands which are known to exist in the German and Italian agreements, as they are at present drafted, concern an increased payment by Venezuela prior to the handing down of The Hague decision regarding the allies' contention for preferential consideration in the settlement of their claims. It is reported that Germany asks that she receive in addition to the $27,500 cash that Mr. Bowen has agreed to pay a certain percentage of the customs receipts until the remainder of the $34,000 demanded in the original ultimatum addressed by Germany to President Castro last autumn is paid.

Italy, it is believed, is insisting on a similar demand though the amount for it in her ultimatum was over $50,000. Both Germany and Italy suggest that this money be paid in monthly instalments out of the customs duties, but even under this arrangement it would require eight months for the payment of the entire sum.

It is the principle, however, to which Mr. Bowen so strenuously objects and which he has informed the German and Italian envoys he cannot subscribe to. Until their protocols are relieved of these objectionable demands, Mr. Bowen says that they must remain unsigned. He contends that Germany and Italy are insisting on preferential treatment, a question which they agree in their protocols shall go to The Hague.

It is the first opinion of both the Italian ambassador and the German minister that the insertion in their protocols of these demands is the result of a serious misunderstanding on the part of their foreign offices of certain phases of the negotiations which were supposed to be settled. They are using every effort to have this misunderstanding cleared up and have informed Mr. Bowen they hope to submit their conventions to him in a few days.

Mr. Bowen has made it plain to the allies' representatives that he is willing to consider any reasonable requests they may advance, but that he will not yield to the extent of signing the present German and Italian protocols.

Published reports that Germany included in her protocol a demand for an apology from President Castro of his resignation is news to Mr. Bowen and of course would not be considered.

NEW FREE DELIVERY RULING.

Letters Can Now Be Registered Without Meeting the Carrier.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Third Assistant Postmaster General Madden has issued a manual of instructions for the conduct of registry business in the rural free delivery service. The most important innovation provides for the registration of letters and parcels left in the rural mail boxes, the carrier leaving the sender's receipt in the box. Formerly it was necessary for the sender to meet the carrier on the route.

Rural carriers also are required to accept for registration mail matter properly prepared and offered by any one that meets them while on duty, whether a patron of the rural free delivery service or not.

Storekeepers on rural routes customarily receive the mail matter of their patrons, delivering it to them at the first opportunity. Registered mail has not been delivered in this manner in the past, but it is now provided that on the written order which the addressees are required to leave for the delivery of their mail to the storekeeper, registered mail also will be delivered, except such as is indorsed by the senders' "deliver to addressee only."

GIGANTIC INSURANCE SWINDLES.

Gang of Italians Defraud Eight Companies Out of Thousands of Dollars.

New York, Feb. 10.—Between 10 and 15 bodies will be exhumed in Cavalry cemetery the latter part of this week as a result of discoveries made by Assistant District Attorney Krotol, who, for several weeks has been investigating a series of swindles by a gang of Italians, by whom eight different insurance companies have been cheated out of large sums. It is now believed that the losses will aggregate close to $100,000.

Information has been received here to the effect that James Smithson, the founder of the Smithsonian Institution, is about to be removed from his grave in Genoa, Italy, to make room for a quarry. A movement has been started here to have the United States government bring his body to this country and give him a permanent resting place in the grounds of the institution which he founded.

Insurance company are convinced that they have paid at least 23 claims to the gang on substituted bodies and falsified death and burial certificates. The Union Central company, of Cincinnati, knows of four bogus claims it has paid, and has at least seven more which probably will be connected with the gang. The Metropolitan, the Tradesmen's, the Provident Life, the Prudential, the New York Life and several other companies have also been victimized.

Union Veterans Union to Reorganize.

Springfield, O., Feb. 10.—Fifty delegates to the national convention of the Union Veterans Union are in the city, representing all parts of the United States. At the meeting an attempt will be made to reorganize the Union along the lines which were intended when it was established, 20 years ago. This meeting is the result of a split in the national convention, held in Washington last September, when R. G. Dryenforth was elected commander over General F. B. Hutchinson, of Rochester, N. Y. Hutchinson and his adherents withdrew from the convention. They claim that they delegates here represent two-thirds of the entire organization. They propose to eliminate from the membership all veterans who did not see six months' service and one engagement. Hutchinson will be elected commander.

Brewery Workers in Session.

Cincinnati, Feb. 10.—The brewery workers' national convention spent the entire day yesterday hearing the cases of the 12 New York delegates who were refused seats in the convention.

The case of Delegate Boehm, from union 31, was first taken up. The accusations against Boehm are that he conspired with the engineers and firemen's unions in New York and made contracts with brewers that were against the policies and interests of the union. Boehm was found guilty of these charges and was not only refused a seat in the convention, but was expelled from the brewery workers' organization.

Journalist and Sister Dead.

Oskaloosa, Kan., Feb. 10.—Al Patrick, one of the first editors of the Louisville Courier Journal, is dead here, aged 80 years. His death was sudden. When his sister, Mrs. S. S. Cooper, viewed the body she fell to the floor unconscious and died in a few hours.

Disposition of Philips Gift.

Calcutta, Feb. 10.—The gift of $100,000 which Henry Phipps, director of the Carnegie Steel company, handed to Lord Curzon, Feb. 1, for some practical object or scientific research of enduring benefit to India, will be devoted to the establishment of an agricultural laboratory in Cashmere and a Pather institute in Southern India. The government will give the sites for these institutions and will assist in maintaining the first, and will wholly maintain the second institution.

NATIONAL CAPITAL NOTES.

Charles B. Davis, formerly colonel of the Fifth Infantry, will be retired at once on his own application.

The president yesterday signed the bill appropriating $1,500,000 for the construction of a new building for the department of agriculture in this city.

Consul Baehr, of San Clenfuegos reports that sugar grinding commenced in Santa Clara a month ago. A good crop is anticipated by the planters.

Consul General Gudger, at Panama, reports to the state department that the Columbia government has abolished the taxes on local steamship tickets and on passports and all tonnage taxes.

Hon. Harry New and ex-Mayor Thomas Taggart of Indianapolis, called on the president yesterday to discuss with him the seizure of the mine in which they are interested by the authorities of Mexico.

Horatio J. Pollock, chairman of the executive committee of the League of Roosevelt clubs, with headquarters in Chicago, called on the president yesterday afternoon and discussed with him the work of the league.

Postmaster General Payne has ordered a modification of the postal laws and regulations regarding the use of mail sacks of the government by senators, representatives and others. By amended regulations sacks must be returned within three days.

Information has been received here to the effect that James Smithson, the founder of the Smithsonian Institution, is about to be removed from his grave in Genoa, Italy, to make room for a quarry. A movement has been started here to have the United States government bring his body to this country and give him a permanent resting place in the grounds of the institution which he founded.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Renewed Activity and Large Deal-ings—An Upward Tendency Universal.

New York, Feb. 10.—There was a revival of activity in yesterday's stock market which brought the volume of trading above the level of last Thursday. There was greater breadth and variety also in the dealings than for weeks.

There was a pause in the upward movement after the opening spurt, but after that there was no general reaction until the final hour. The reaction was somewhat emphasized by reports that new proposals had been received from Germany concerning the Venezuelan settlement which threatened to open up the whole question. The closing was steady and generally only a fraction below the best.

Commission houses reported some increase in outside business. The upward movement originated yesterday morning in the Gould stocks and in the bituminous coal carriers.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Smith-Talbot.

Kinsey Talbot, of Robinson street, and Miss Jeannette Smith, of Millwood, W. Va., were married at Steubenville on Monday, the announcement of which comes as a big surprise to the many friends of the groom in this city. Mt. Talbot is a well known young operative, employed as a finisher at the K. T. & K. pottery, and the bride is one of the prominent young ladies of the little West Virginia city. They will make their home on Robin street.

Belmont Club Dance.

For the Belmont club dance, which will take place at Rock Springs on Thursday, February 19, about 200 invitations have been issued, among them a number to those living out of town. The dancing will begin at 8:30 and continue until 1 o'clock. McGraw's orchestra will furnish the music.

Mrs. Edwin Aley, of Fifth street, will entertain a large number of her friends on Friday evening. Those in attendance will consist largely of the members of the East Liverpool Social club.

Missionary Meeting.

The Young Ladies' Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church last evening held a regular business session.

AN EXPERIENCED MAN

George Olnhausen, Well Acquainted With City Affairs, Candidate for Public Service Board.

There is no better qualified man in the race for a place on the board of public service than George Olnhausen, of the Fourth ward. In fact, his friends are of the opinion there is not one who could even equal him in point of knowledge of the money matters this department will be called upon to look after. He has had several years' experience in the council, during which time he performed a great deal of work for and in the interest of the city along the line of public improvements.

Aside from this he has been connected with a number of large concerns who at one time or another have had the biggest kind of contracts on hand. He is peculiarly fitted for the position and will make an excellent official. He is conscientious in everything he does and this assures the taxpayers that their interests will be protected in the true sense of the word.

When seen today Mr. Olnhausen said: "If elected I will do all in my power to have free competition on all contracts; to see that public money is properly invested; to abolish unnecessary expenses in all departments; to prevent the annual deficit, and at all times encourage strict business methods."

COUNCILMAN-AT-LARGE

Henry E. Bullock, of the Present Council, Strongly Endorsed As a Candidate.

One of the candidates for councilman-at-large at the coming primaries is Henry E. Bullock, who has been a member of the city council for the past two years. Mr. Bullock has at all times taken the part of the citizens in general and advocated the principle that the greatest good was to the greatest number of taxpayers.

His experience has been of a varied character and has enabled him to perform good work during his term of office. His friends are urging his return to the position on the grounds of excellent qualifications and good business judgment. He can be voted for in any precinct of any ward and collects the support of all voters in the nine precincts in the different wards of the city.

BIG WAGERS LAID ON MAYORALTY FIGHT

Several Bets of $100 Show How Warm the Contest Is Waxing.

That the mayoralty fight is waxing warm is evidenced by the number of bets that are being posted. All the candidates have friends who seem to be willing and in some instances anxious to chance their money on the result. One of the first big wagers posted was between Henry Meiningier, of the East End, and James Morrow, the former pinning faith to Dr. R. J. Marshall and the latter to T. V. Thompson. The amount is $100, with no odds.

Another $100 bet was made Friday evening that Marshall would receive more votes at the primary than Thompson. This money was placed in the hands of C. G. Anderson, as stakeholder. No odds were given. Another bet was made last evening, $100 even on Nice against the field. The money is up and in the hands of Mr. Anderson. It is understood that the Nice end was taken by several of the candidate's friends.

Many smaller bets are being made every day and it is likely that before the day of the contest arrives several thousand dollars will be wagered on the result.
